GATHERING

Here I Am to Worship

Tim Hughes

Light of the world, You stepped down into darkness, opened my eyes, let me see Beauty that made this heart adore You. Hope of a life spent with You.

REFRAIN:

So, here I am to wor-ship, here I am to bow down, here I am to say that You're my God. _____ And You're al - to - geth - er love - ly, al - to - geth - er wor - thy, al - to - geth - er won - der - ful to me. _____

King of all days, oh so highly exalted, glorious in Heaven above Humbly You came to the earth You created. All for love's sake, became poor.

GLORIA

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
Amen.

Simeon and Anna – Precursors of Our Parish Mission?

Dear Friends,

It's only every several years that the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord falls on a Sunday, so it may be more familiar to those who attend daily Mass. But it's an important enough feast that when it does fall on a Sunday of Ordinary Time, it replaces that Sunday's usual prayers and readings. That is the case this year.

The reading from Luke's gospel we hear this weekend is an account of how Mary and Joseph brought the child Jesus to the temple in Jerusalem in accordance with Jewish law, and of how two holy people who had been waiting faithfully for the Messiah (Simeon and Anna) reacted when they encountered Jesus. I'm struck by several things in the story. One is that Jesus was a Jew, as were his entire family and ancestry. He was brought up from the beginning to be observant of God's law, to worship in the temple or synagogue, to observe the prescribed rituals, and to live justly and righteously, awaiting the fulfillment of God's promise. Others much wiser than I have pondered at what point Jesus became aware that he was the Christ, the one that had been promised. The Scriptures tell us that he grew in grace, wisdom and favor.

The faith of Simeon and Anna is also significant. In particular, it seems that Simeon never doubted that God would fulfill what had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit – that he would not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. I love the way Simeon addresses God upon meeting Jesus after having waited for so long: "Now, Master you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation." And Anna embodies our parish mission statement: "And coming forward at that very time, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were waiting the redemption of Jerusalem." She encountered Jesus. She became a disciple.

The humility of Mary and Joseph is also compelling. Here are two people who have experienced a lot of supernatural events: Gabriel's annunciation to Mary that she would be the Mother of the Savior, Joseph being counseled in a dream to go ahead and take Mary into his home even though she was with child, the journey to Bethlehem, the birth of Jesus in the stable, the angels sending shepherds to worship the child, the star which guided the Magi with their gifts to the child, the escape from Herod's slaughter of the innocent – again prompted by Joseph's dream. One might think they would become used to strange and wonderful events. Yet they were "amazed" at what Simeon said about the child.

In the letter to the Hebrews (our second reading) we hear a little more about the meaning of the gift of Jesus Christ: "... He had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested."

Brothers and sisters, that is us.

Dominic MacAller

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 2:22-40 ~ Jesus came to live among us and light the path to Salvation

Mary and Joseph took their faith seriously enough to make a return to the Lord of the most precious thing in their lives, their son, whom they presented to God in the Temple. How do you return to God that which is most precious to you? What is your practice of gratitude and stewardship?
