GATHERING

Here I Am to Worship

Tim Hughes

Light of the world, You stepped down into darkness, opened my eyes, let me see
 Beauty that made this heart adore You.
 Hope of a life spent with You.

REFRAIN:

So, here I am to wor-ship, here I am to bow down, here I am to say that You're my God. _____ And You're al - to - geth - er love - ly, al - to - geth - er wor - thy, al - to - geth - er won - der - ful to me. _____

King of all days, oh so highly exalted,
 glorious in Heaven above
 Humbly You came to the earth You created.
 All for love's sake, became poor.

So here I am to worship...

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 33: Let Your Mercy Be On Us

Marty Haugen, Gather #44

Let your mer - cy be on us, O God,

as we place our trust in you.

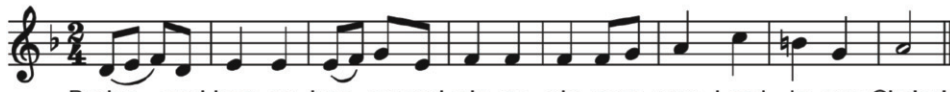

1. Your words, O God, are truth indeed, and all your works are ever faithful; you love justice and right, your compassion fills all creation.
2. See how the eye of God is watching, ever guarding all who wait in hope, to deliver them from death and sustain them in time of famine.
3. Exult, you just, in the Lord, for praise is the song of the righteous! How happy the people of God, the ones whom God has chosen!
4. Our soul is waiting for God, for God is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O God, be upon us who place our hope in you.

Our Resurrection

My Dear Fellow Parishioners,

This Lent our parish is very blessed to have 16 members of the “Elect” – four adults, three teens, three middle schoolers and six elementary school children – who will be initiated into the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil on April 11. On the First Sunday of Lent our parish community sent them, along with their godparents, to Bishop Barron who celebrated the Rite of Election with them and with the many other catechumens from throughout the region. During this important rite their godparents testified to the bishop about their readiness for initiation. The catechumens themselves publicly stated their desire to be baptized, and the bishop, at the highpoint of the ceremony, proclaimed, “I declare you to be members of the Elect, chosen by God, to be initiated at the next Easter Vigil.” What a joyful moment that was for all of us – newly elected, family members, friends, godparents and teachers!

Lent marks the Elect’s final period of preparation for the sacraments. They will celebrate three more rites called Scrutinies on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent which will strengthen them as they strive to become more conformed to the ways of Jesus. They will increase their prayer life, fast and participate in charitable works along with us as they prepare for Baptism and we prepare to renew our own baptismal promises at Easter.

As they, and we, look to the remaining five weeks of Lent, it may all seem a little daunting. But I believe the readings for today can encourage all of us on our Lenten journey as well as on life’s journey. When I read in the account of the Transfiguration that Jesus’ clothes became “white as light,” I always think of the white garment we put on after we are baptized. The Transfiguration of Jesus, as well as our baptismal garment, give us a glimpse of his Resurrection which in turn gives hope of a new, transformed life for ourselves ... during Lent, throughout our lives and when we, too, rise from the dead.

The theme that God chooses and calls us is evident in all three readings. Also evident is that God guides us, blesses us and bestows grace on us that we may be holy. Our greatest guide and blessing is Jesus. At the end of today’s Gospel we are told, “Listen to him.” May our Lenten practices help us to listen to him more closely.

Blessings,

Catherine

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.
Matthew 17:1-9 ~ Transfiguration - with the Spirit of Jesus living within us, we will be transformed.
 In this gospel, Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, a favorite place for revelation in Matthew's Gospel. Here the presence of God shines through Jesus, and he is transformed. Have you ever had a "mountain top" experience where you felt exceptionally close to God? How did that experience change your life?

Stations of the Cross Family Craft

Sunday, March 15
After 11:00 am Mass
Serra Center

Come and join us in making a meaningful Lent project with your whole family!

This project will entail painting and decoupageing peg people. Once completed, this set has the characters you need to act out the Passion of Jesus, including everyone you need for the 14 Stations of the Cross. Set this up in your home to remind everyone of Jesus' sacrifice for us and his triumphant resurrection.

Donation: $10 per family.

RSVP is required to hold your kit, contact christine@padreserra.org or visit www.padreserra.org/news/stations-craft

Congratulations to our Catholic Charities Partners in Service Honorees!

On Sunday, February 16, Padre Serra joined with other parishes in Ventura County to honor and thank parishioners for their dedication to ministry and life as Jesus' disciple. Padre Serra proudly honored Laurie Nichols and Terri Korell.

Laurie has been a parishioner since 1988. Over these 32 years, she has served as a catechist, retreat team member, baptism team member, Eucharistic Minister, lector and coordinator, choir member, and welcome team leader.

Terri has dedicated her life to caring for the sick, the dying, and the poorest among us. She currently serves as the president of our St. Vincent de Paul ministry.
