Psalm 16: You Will Show Me the Path of Life

Marty Haugen

You will show me the path of life, you, my hope and my shel-ter.

In your pres-ence is end-less joy, at your side is my home for - ev-er.

1. Faithful God, I look to you, you alone my life and fortune, never shall I look to other gods, you shall be my one hope.
2. From of old you are my heritage, you my wisdom and my safety, through the night you speak within my heart, silently you teach me.
3. So my heart shall sing for joy, in your arms I rest securely, you will not abandon me to death, you shall not desert me.

Faith at Home

Dear Faith Family,

I hope you are doing well. I know times are difficult and it may be hard to find silver linings throughout the quarantine, but even if we cannot see it, God is still at work.

For years as Youth and Young Adult Minister here at Padre Serra, I have been incredibly blessed to minister to hundreds of youth and young adults. I know it is cliché, but it's absolutely true when I say that they minister to me as much as I minister to them. They have made my faith more real and I am blessed to have encountered so many examples of young people pursuing Christ and becoming disciples.

I'm not sure about you, but I tend to fall under the trap of exploring my faith mostly at church functions. Whether it's Mass, gatherings with other youth ministers or the events that we run at Padre Serra. While these are important to our faith lives, this quarantine has got me thinking about the importance of the Domestic Church. I mentioned silver linings, this may be one of them; through this quarantine, I have learned to bring my faith home in a new way.

We are blessed to have Mass livestreamed, thank you to all of you who have tuned in, and in Youth and Young Adult Ministry we have been very active with digital gatherings, trying to keep to the norm before all of this mess. My challenge though, since we are adhering to social distancing, is who to share the good news with beyond the Church event. What better place to do this than at home?

I am lucky to say that my family's prayer life at home has been more intentional than ever. Like all of you, my family and I are yearning for the day where we can gather in person again, but somehow, even without being able to physically be at church, a new spirituality has been on my heart. I truly believe that by allowing God in our homes in a more intentional way, we will continue to make disciples of all nations, even if we are stuck at home.

Again, I know things are difficult. Just the thought of the amount of Zoom meetings I've had make my eyes hurt. But I promise you it is not without benefit! When Christ commissioned his Apostles to spread His good news, what was the major step? To gather in homes to allow the Holy Spirit to dwell within them. This is such a great opportunity to strengthen our homes with grace.

I promise when we do that, the next time we all get to receive Communion together, we will be more joined in community than ever!

I'm praying for all of you. Thank you for everything that you do!

Brett Becker
Youth and Young Adult Minister

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 24:13-35 ~ Were not our hearts burning within us as he spoke?

In today's Gospel, a stranger joins the disciples as they journey to Emmaus. The stranger was Jesus and was only recognized in the breaking of the bread. The disciples described this encounter with Jesus as one that caused their hearts to burn within them. What spiritual practices bring you closer to Jesus, causing your heart to burn in connection and recognition?

Cut out pattern and trace onto any color foam sheet or stock paper. Cut out just inside the drawn lines so they do not show on the dove. Attach a thread into the center of the wings for hanging, then place a thin line of hot glue on the top of flat area of the dove and lay the centered wing piece onto it. You can also attach a charm or bead to the bottom of the dove if desired.
