Lord, Do You Really Mean 7x70 Times?

Fr. Jack Stoeger
Tuesday, November 10
7:00 pm, via Zoom

This year has certainly brought challenges we could never have imagined. Life as we had known it came to a sudden halt! As men and women called to continually "encounter Jesus and become disciples," we are in need of spiritual comfort and reassurance that Jesus is with us. As we look around, we can't help but notice that we desperately need forgiveness and reconciliation of the divisions in our homes, families, parish communities, our nation and indeed the broader world. Join Fr. Jack in this time to "stop, look, and listen" to what God might be saying to us.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24: We Long to See Your Face

Kevin Keil

O God, this is the peo-ple that longs to see your face. O
God, this is the peo-ple that longs to see your face.

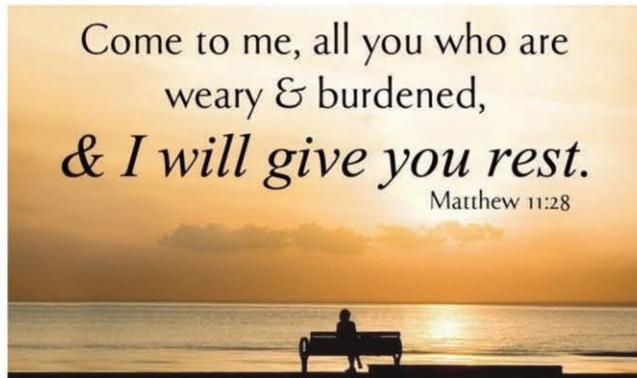

1. All the earth is yours, O God, the world and those who dwell on it.
You have founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.
2. Who can ascend your mountain, God? Or who may stand in this holy place?
Those whose hands are sinless, hearts are clean, and desire not the vanity of earth.
3. They shall receive your blessing, God, their Savior shall reward them.
Such is the face that seeks for you, that seeks your face, O God of Jacob.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
 it is you I seek!
 For you my body yearns;
 for you my soul thirsts,
 in the land parched,
 lifeless and without water.
 I look to you in the sanctuary
 to see your power and glory.
 For your love is better than life,
 my lips shall ever praise you.
 I will bless you as long as I live;
 I will lift up my hands,
 calling on your name.
 My soul shall be filled,
 as with choice food,
 with joyous lips my mouth
 shall praise you!
 I think of you upon my bed,
 I remember you through the watches of night.
 You indeed are my savior and,
 in the shadow of your wings,
 I shout for joy.
 My soul clings fast to you;
 your right hand upholds me.

Blessed are You ...

Dear Parish Family,

Happy All Saints day! Every year on November 1, the Church takes a pause to recall the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. On this feast day it is so perfect that the Gospel proclaimed is Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, in particular, the Beatitudes. We hear the words "Blessed" in some translations as the words "happy," "fortunate" or "favored." These words help us understand what Jesus is saying, that there is divine favor for the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted.

As was expressed in the second reading, to be a Christian means that at times we live contrary to the ways of this world. The world says success is based on wealth, but Jesus says we are to be "poor in spirit." Money itself is not bad, but "the love of money is the root of all evil." Jesus calls us to be detached from wealth. Furthermore, the world tells us to seek pleasure. Just think of the popular phrase, "Do what you want, whatever makes you happy" Rather, Jesus says, "Blessed are those who mourn." The world tells us to seek power, but Jesus says be "meek." Moreover, the world says honor and the approval of others is important, but Jesus says, "Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness."

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Simply put, they are the "how to's" of sainthood. There is a reason why in the process to declare someone a saint they are "Beatified." Saints are "meek"; they are "pure of heart"; saints are "merciful" and "peacemakers"; they "hunger and thirst for righteousness." God's children are even willing to be persecuted and insulted for the sake of Christ. Therefore, if we want to be a saint, we must seek these things. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes. If you find it difficult, just remember, "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." In other words, it's all worth it in the end.

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 5:1-12 ~ We become blest by being children of God.

In today's gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes, which describes the life of a saint as one filled with blessings. But the blessings are not necessarily what the world would consider good. Saints are those whom God has chosen and blessed with his gifts. All Saints Day gives us a chance to remember the saints of our Church and our lives. Who are the people who have been saints in your life? When you heard the Beatitudes today, which one did you hear most clearly as a summons for your own life?

Safeguard the Children

Teens and Alcohol: COVID Temptations

Families have been cooped up for months now during the COVID-19 pandemic. Studies have shown that many Americans are buying more beer and alcohol than usual to cope with related anxiety and stress. These same stresses may tempt teens and young adults to experiment with alcohol, especially if available. Talk to your children about the dangers of underage drinking, even if they plan to stay home. Model good behavior for your children, too; if you do drink alcohol, practice moderation and safe judgment. Consider locking your bar or moving alcohol somewhere out of reach from your children.
