*This year has certainly brought challenges we could never have imagined. Life as we had known it came to a sudden halt! As men and women called to continually "encounter Jesus and become disciples,"
 we are in need of spiritual comfort and reassurance that Jesus is with us. As we look around, we can't help but notice that we desperately need forgiveness
 and reconciliation of the divisions in our homes,
 families, parish communities, our nation and indeed
 the broader world. Join Fr. Jack in this time to "stop, look, and listen" to what God might be saying to us.*

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name
 — Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
 It's time to sing Your song again.
 Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
 Let me be singing when the evening comes.
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
 Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
 For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
 Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 63: My Soul Is Thirsting

Michael Joncas

Refrain

My soul is thirst - ing, my soul is thirst - ing,
 my soul is thirst-ing for you, O Lord my God.

1. O God, you are my God whom I seek;
 O God, you are my God whom I seek;
 for you my flesh pines, my soul thirsts like the earth,
 parched lifeless, without water.
2. Thus have I gazed toward you in your holy place
 to see your power and your glory.
 Your kindness is a greater good than life itself;
 my lips will glorify you.
3. Thus will I bless you while I live;
 Lifting up my hands I will call upon your name.
 As with a banquet shall my soul be satisfied;
 with exhalant lips my mouth shall praise you.
4. For you have been my help, you have been my help;
 in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.
 My soul clings fast to you; your right hand holds me firm;
 in the shadow of your wings I sing for joy.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the
 living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

Finding Peace

Hello Parish Family,

We've all heard it, patience is a virtue. When we have this virtue, we are able to see things with clarity. We are not bound by what is happening in the present, but rather, through patience we gain in wisdom.

It's not a coincidence that wisdom is one of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is through wisdom that we have the ability to see things beyond our mortal lens. Through wisdom, we are able to see with the same sight of our loving God.

When we go into this Sunday's gospel, we see the difference between the wise and the foolish. The foolish brought no oil for their lamps, only focusing on the present (gas cans are heavy, I understand). The wise were well prepared, knowing that their path to the bridegroom would be more clear with a little more effort and understanding on who the bridegroom is.

Now, I'm not an advocate for the anxiety about the future. When we trust in our Creator, our bridegroom, we know that His time is different than ours. If we live our lives knowing the possibility that our God may present Himself, it should actually bring peace, not anxiety.

In the same way that we should fill up our gas tank when the light goes off (I have been known to play the gas game and have failed multiple times), it simply is better to fill up your gas tank and have some reserved for a long drive. No one should ever try to calculate the exact amount of gas to put in your car for a destination, it is reckless. You don't know when the next gas station will pop up on a long trip.

So friends, though the future may be scary, we can always find excuses to be anxious. Our God asks us the opposite. Find peace in Him. Don't constantly be worried about where you will encounter God, but rather, wait in joyous anticipation for the times that He will be there. We can add to that peace when we live lives in anticipation for our bridegroom.

Let's not be afraid of the day or the hour, let's anticipate it with excited hearts.

God Bless,

Brett Becker

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear a parable about five wise bridesmaids (Matthew 25:1-13).

They were able to meet the bridegroom because they had brought extra oil for their lamps.

Five foolish bridesmaids had not brought any and missed the groom's arrival.

We must be ready, too, to meet Jesus when he returns!
Follow the directions below.
