The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
 it is you I seek!
 For you my body yearns;
 for you my soul thirsts,
 in the land parched,
 lifeless and without water.
 I look to you in the sanctuary
 to see your power and glory.
 For your love is better than life,
 my lips shall ever praise you.
 I will bless you as long as I live;
 I will lift up my hands,
 calling on your name.
 My soul shall be filled,
 as with choice food,
 with joyous lips my mouth
 shall praise you!
 I think of you upon my bed,
 I remember you through
 the watches of night.
 You indeed are my savior and,
 in the shadow of your wings,
 I shout for joy.
 My soul clings fast to you;
 your right hand upholds me.

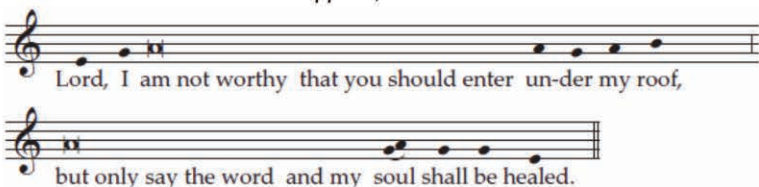

Psalms 63:2-9

Invitation to Communion

 behold Him who takes away the sins of the world.
 Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Happy Coronavirus Anniversary

Some of us have had our coronavirus birthdays and wedding anniversaries. Too many young people had covid-graduations – that was not what we wanted for them! Celebrations on Zoom are fine, and very worth doing. Drive-by revelries are SO much more festive, but both of these leave something unfulfilled. Today, we have our own great parish event to remember and celebrate, most certainly in a way less than it deserves. So, my dear Padre Serra parishioners, happy 25th Anniversary of our church building to you!

Twenty-five years ago, on July 1st, 1995, the founding families of the parish dedicated the beautiful church in which we worship. Those of us who came later owe them a debt of gratitude for their generosity, courage and faith. They worked long and hard to raise the money to buy the land and build our campus. They were daring and spirited, designing a beautiful, innovative church in the round, with Chumash and Mission touches, celebrating both our predecessors and our patron saint. Their actions flowed from their deep trust in God, and their admirable willingness to build up the Kingdom, not primarily by building a building, but foremost, by gathering a community. If we can hold onto that sense of kinship in these coronavirus-ridden days, it will be because we stand on their shoulders.

The church that we are celebrating on this anniversary is a beautiful house of prayer, for the praise of God's name. One of my great pleasures these last ten years is watching people take their first look at the church's interior. Their reaction is invariably one of pleasure and intrigue. It's different, and yet its many components work so harmoniously. It both shelters us when we are at prayer, and invites us into contemplation and a rich spiritual experience. Its forms, colors, architectural elements of walls, windows, ceilings and pillars all work together, in an experience of beauty and grandeur, to make an interior experience of God possible.

The great irony of this year, of course, is that the quarantine prevents most parishioners from even coming to our parish home. Even when Masses are possible, most can't and many shouldn't come quite yet.

They do say, though, that "absence makes the heart grow fonder." I'm hoping that's true for you, that the separation leaves you hungry for the beauty of the church, and even more for the warmth of the community. It really needs to be a combination of both. The shape and configuration of the church invites us into an awareness of, and an appreciation of, one another.

We had all kinds of plans for how we were going to remember. You may remember we asked our founders to share their memories, their participation and their important family events. Our intent, which we've had to scrap, was to have some of our pioneers share those moments and light one of the consecration candles in the church for us at all the Masses this weekend. We were also going to have a BBQ, and maybe dance a little in the back yard of the parish...Sigh. The pastor proposes; the coronavirus disposes.

Even if we can do nothing else, consider thanking any of our parish pioneers for the great community they formed and the beautiful church that they built to shelter it!

Siempre adelante,

Fr. Patrick
Pastor

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 10:37 42 ~ Jesus asks his disciples to take their cross and follow him.

Today’s gospel is a continuation of Jesus’ instructions to his apostles before sending them out on mission. While they might face persecution, Jesus assures them of their goodness and that of their work while commanding them to take up this persecution as their cross. All will be worth it as resurrection cannot happen without death. What does the cross look like that you are called to carry? How might its resurrection look?

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A woman from Shunem gave Elisha
a place to eat and sleep when he was in town.

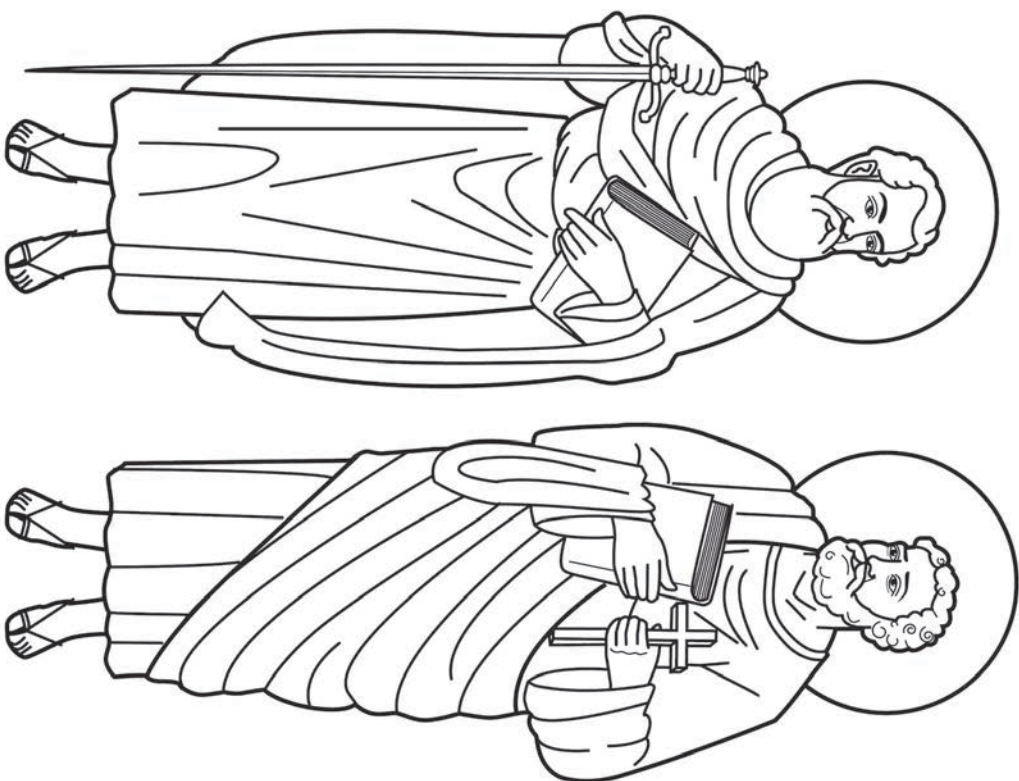

She told her husband to set aside a room on the roof
for this friend. That way he could stay with them any time.

The woman wanted to put four things in the room.
Circle them on the left. Later Elisha promised that in a year
she would have something. Circle that on the right.
(You can read the story in your Bible at 2 Kings 4:8-17).

St Paul

The Apostle Paul, previously known as Saul, He persecuted the Christians savagely, but was dramatically converted to the very One he had been persecuting after seeing Jesus in a vision (Acts 9:4). From that time on, Saul, who was now known as Paul, poured the same energy with which he persecuted Christ's followers into bringing the Gospel of Jesus to many people.

St Peter

St. Peter, originally known as Simon, was one of the original 12 Apostles. It is because of Peter's confession of faith in Jesus as Messiah that Jesus gave him the nickname of "rock" and stated that it was upon the rock of Peter's faith that the Church would be built (Matthew 16:18). St. Peter's authority extends to the present Pope in an unbroken line.
