Kathleen MacAller

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruit - - - ful har - vest.

1. You visit the land and water it; You have enriched it greatly.
God's water courses now are filled; You prepare the grain.
2. And thus you prepare the land for us tilling the soil, and watering,
You soften the earth with gentle showers, blessing its yield.
3. You have crowned the year with bounty your rich harvest overflowing
The untilled meadows overflow, rejoicing clothes the hills.
4. The fields are richly garmented, with your flocks, grazing peacefully.
Abundant grain blankets your valleys, they shout and sing for joy.

The seed is the

A Parable to Encounter Jesus and Be Disciples

What exactly is a parable? In C.H. Dodd's book, The Parables of the Kingdom, he defines a parable as "a metaphor or simile drawn from nature or common life, arresting the hearer by its vividness or strangeness, and leaving the mind in sufficient doubt about its precise application to tease it into active thought."

In today's gospel the Parable of the Sower from Matthew would have been contemporary to a Jewish farming culture. Dry, rocky or thorny soil would have been understood as foolish for a favorable future harvest. This parable of the soil teaching by Jesus was offered to the inquiring or non-believing "large crowds because they do not see and hear and do not listen or understand" his prior teachings that the revelation of the Kingdom of God was at hand.

If we "tease" today's parable into "active thought" we need to ask ourselves are we too part of the "large crowds" Jesus was speaking to who did not see or hear, listen or understand him? Or are we truly a disciple of Jesus encountering him and living his teachings in good soil of our own lives? Maybe we find ourselves at one moment being an inquirer in the "large crowd" and at another time an active disciple living in Jesus.

Contemporary times for us present different types of challenging "soil" to be tilled with good seed. Contemporary dry soil may be our growing and enveloping secular and materialism culture or the challenge of living a life filled with the rocky soil of anxiety, busyness, loneliness, and siren songs distracting us from balance, solitude and silence. Thorny soil abounds with challenging political and cultural divisions, civic unrest, collapse of families, injustices in education, health and economics, and least we forget a pandemic with many deaths and the social and economic effects of the lock down.

God may cast seeds on dry, rocky, thorny or on our own contemporary challenging soils but as has been written "some may see this as foolish but others may see this as God's hope and encouragement" for a favorable harvest anywhere. The Parable of the Sower does "tease" us to ask not only who we are but in what soil we live. We are to encounter Jesus and be disciples in words and works in all soils offering hope and encouragement as his encountered seeds. Do we do this?

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 13:1-9 ~ Discipleship: opening our hearts to Jesus' word and acting upon it.

In the parable of the sower, Jesus was talking about the Kingdom of God. The seed is the word of God; the various kinds of soil represent different dispositions in the hearers. The Kingdom of God grows best in willing hearts. Describe how faith has been planted in your life. How long did it take for that seed to land "on good soil?"

Consider planting a windowsill herb garden or plant a small vegetable garden outside with your family. Plan what kind of garden you want to plant. Choose your seeds and plants. Find the place where you want your garden to be. Prepare the soil, then plant and water. Every day go out to your garden. Discuss as a family how blessed you are by God's love and mercy. Talk about some of the blessings that have occurred since the Safe at Home order was implemented. How has your love and togetherness grown during these challenging times? Share a pic with us. HOLY HEROES

Helping You Bring the Joy of the Faith to Your Family

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 12, 2020

Such large crowds gathered around Jesus that He got into a boat and sat down, ... and He spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear." (Mt. 13:2a-9)
