A Retreat with Mark's Gospel

Begins Monday, January 4
10:00 am - 12:00 pm, via Zoom

Mark's Gospel presents a distinctive portrait of Jesus, emphasizing how Jesus is both the powerful Son of God and the suffering Son of Man. The Gospel of Mark also portrays Christ in action.

Combining prayerful reflection and careful biblical scholarship, this 16-week study will help us to grow ever more faithful in our own attempts to follow Jesus in our own lives.

3. He shall reign from sea to sea to the farthest ends of the earth. All of the nations shall praise and adore, all peoples will bring him their gifts.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

The First Noel

Verses

1. The first Noel, the angel did say,
2. They looked up and saw a star
3. And by the light of that same star
4. This star drew nigh to the north-west,
5. Then entered in those wise men three,
6. Then let us all with one accord

1. Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
2. Shining in the east, beyond them far;
3. Three wise men came from country far;
4. O'er Beth-le-hem it took its rest,
5. Full reverently upon the knee,
6. Sing praises to our heavenly Lord;

1. In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
2. And to the earth it gave great light,
3. To seek for a king was their intent,
4. And there it did both stop and stay,
5. And offered there, in his presence,
6. Who with the Father we adore

1. On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
2. And so it continued both day and night.
3. And to follow the star wherever it went.
4. Right o-ver the place where Jesus lay.

Everything's Gonna Be OK

Dear friends on the journey,

Recently my mom shared with me that every night at dinner my dad recites his pandemic mantra: EGBOK, an acronym for Everything's Gonna Be OK. My brother even gifted him a T-shirt with the mantra. I was intrigued so I did what any 21st century resident does ... I googled it. EGBOK was the trademark phrase of the KABC-AM morning radio show, The Ken and Bob Company. For nearly 20 years, day after day, hosts Ken Minyard and Bob Arthur encouraged their Southern California listeners with their motto: Don't worry, EGBOK. This became so popular that thousands of fans wore buttons as a reminder and a hostage of the 1985 TWA hijacking in Beirut credited his faith in God and EGBOK for his survival and release.

All during this Advent and Christmas, the theme of light and darkness kept coming up for me. Not just in scripture and homilies but in unexpected places. On December 21 we witnessed the "Christmas Star" better known as the Great Conjunction, the aligning of Jupiter and Saturn in the southwestern sky. This alignment of planets to form a single brighter "star" in the sky could very well be what the Magi followed in today's gospel. They trusted this star to guide their long journey. They relied on its light in the night's darkness. In fact, it was only in the darkness that the Magi could see the vibrant star better. They trusted this light would lead them to the newborn king of the Jews. And they arrived and found what was promised.

Even in our first reading from Isaiah we hear the great prophet talk about the light that symbolizes the promise of blessings for Jerusalem. He assures the people that no matter the darkness and thick clouds covering the earth the Lord will shine upon them. This radiant light will cause their hearts to throb and overflow, and so much goodness will come. And they experienced what was promised.

Today's scripture, and really our faith, is all about light, God's radiant light that is promised and given to us today, most especially in our earthly darkness. I dare say 2020 has been a year of darkness. The pandemic hovers over us like San Fernando Valley smog. It is ever-present, affecting our daily routines, mental health, employment, relationships, milestone celebrations, and holidays. It exacerbates the grief of a cancer diagnosis, a failed relationship, the death of a loved one, and so on. It fatigues us and blurs our vision of the good.

As it was for the Magi, the darkness is when we see Christ's light best. In this pandemic darkness, Christ's light assures us that this darkness of isolation and worry won't last forever. It will be conquered. His light guides us, warms us, gives us hope that good will come, that everything's going to be OK. Isn't EGBOK basically our Christian faith? God's promise is revealed in the Paschal Mystery. The darkness of Good Friday is conquered by the morning light of Easter and the hope of resurrection when we will enjoy the glorious light of heaven.

My friends, don't worry, EGBOK. We will soon be together again in this new year of 2021.

Matthew 2:1 12 ~ Jesus is a gift to all humanity.

Matthew's Gospel clearly demonstrates that all the prophecies of old have come to fulfillment in Christ. As promised, Gentile wise men recognize Jesus as Messiah even when the Jerusalem sages do not. The star guided these wise men, the Magi, to Jesus. What are the people or events who have guided you in your relationship with Jesus?

Safeguard the Children

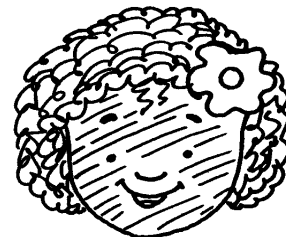

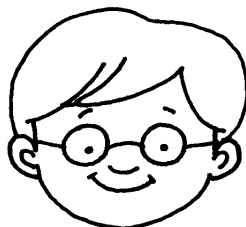

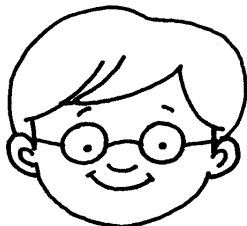

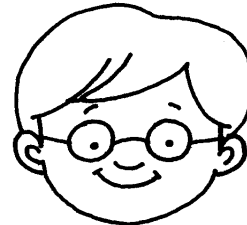

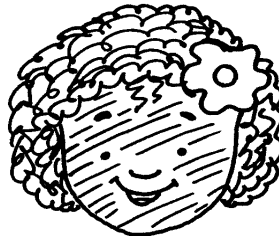

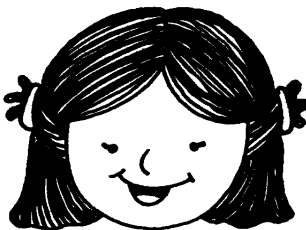

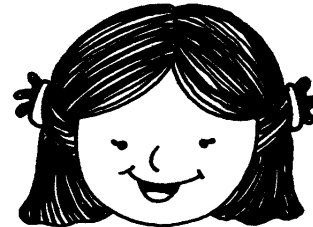

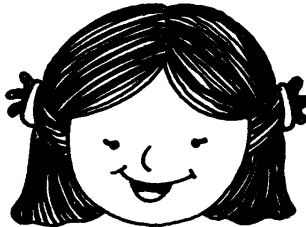

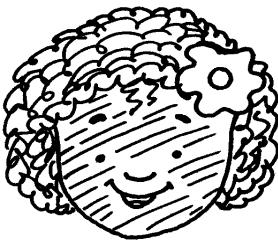

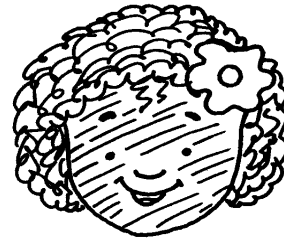

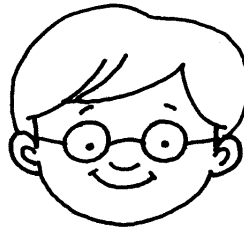

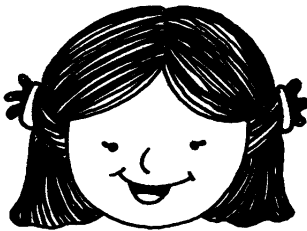

How the ADLA Can Help Victim Survivors Heal

When the Vatican released the McCarrick report late last year, many victim survivors of sexual abuse may have been triggered by the revelations in the report and the repeated mention of it in the news and on social media. In the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, the Office of Victims Assistance Ministry was created to provide a safe and compassionate environment for victim survivors who need to report abuse to be able to do so and to receive assistance for healing.
