The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Lent

Hello Faith Family,

Every year, there is one statement that I audibly make, without fail.

“Whoa, it’s Lent already?”

The Holy Season of Lent begins this Wednesday. And while we prepare to discern that steps we should take in preparation for Easter, I just want to again remind everyone that Lent is not simply a 40-day cleanse diet for Catholics.

There is a reason why Lent is such a big deal. It’s not just the idea of giving up things that make your physical and spiritual life unhealthy, but it’s also an offering of these things (both good and bad) that help us to grow closer in dependency for God and to relish in the joy of His Resurrection.

Is Lent difficult? Yes, but that’s part of the reason why it is so beautiful. By creating new habits through fasting, prayer and almsgiving, we are able to see how vibrant God’s love is. Lent is truly a wonderful catalyst toward a stronger relationship with God without distractions.

With all that said, though, there is a potential of excess discomfort that can lead us away from who God is and distract us from what the season is about. The idea of Lent is not for us to be miserable for 40 days. In fact, if all the prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that is done leads us away from joy, then I would argue that we are doing it wrong.

My favorite part of Lent is the understanding that comes from participation in the season. The joy of the Resurrection will always overcome the dependency on other things, if we allow it to. This season is about allowing the Resurrection be a part of every aspect of our lives. We are creating good habits that go beyond the 40 days.

It doesn’t mean that the all things that we give up are inherently evil, but rather, we see the grace in the things that we seldom forget to attribute to God.

That chocolate? Your TikTok account? These are not evil, but rather, through fasting from we see that God blessed these things. Something that inherently seems neutral, now can be seen as a blessing from God.

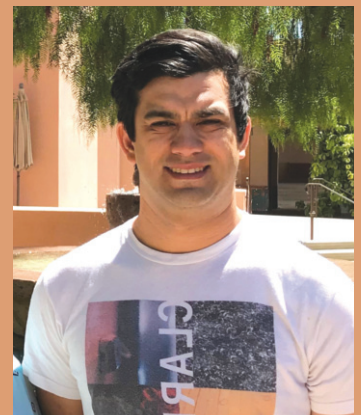

Giving up cursing? Ceasing gossip? The sinful that we give up during Lent are now seen as what they really are. Actions that separate us from God and neighbor. When we increase in awareness of these vices in our lives, we grow in holiness during this season.

Regardless of the things we give up, we offer them up to God to transform in one way or another.

And in this season of Lent I pray that we are able to recognize how God has transformed them.

Youth and Young Adult Minister

Mark 1:40-45 ~ Jesus wants to make us whole.

The Gospel story shows that Jesus not only has the power to cure disease, he also has the ability to heal the separation from the community and the separation from God, which leprosy signified. When have you personally experienced God's healing touch? In what ways does our community (faith, neighborhood, country, world) need Jesus'z healing and unity?

Becoming Catholic

Come and See

Do you know someone who is wondering if the Catholic Church is the place for them? It could be your neighbor, your co-worker, or someone in your family. At Padre Serra, we have a group that meets on Tuesday evenings, 7:00 - 8:30 pm via Zoom, year-round, to explore what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in the Catholic tradition. The atmosphere is informal, open, and free of any pressure. Those attending are invited to ask any questions they may have followed by a discussion on various topics regarding our faith. If you know someone who might be interested, invite them to one of the meetings. ## Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus healed a man with a terrible disease called leprosy.

Jesus told him not to tell anyone.

But the man spread the news about it anyway.

Count the number of times this man has shouted, "Healed!"
Then write that number inside the bandage roll at the bottom.

HOLY HEROES

Helping You Bring the Joy of the Faith to Your Family

The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 14, 2021

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged Him and said, "If You wish, You can make me clean." Moved with pity, He stretched out His hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, He dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them."
