WALK | GIVE | CHANGE THE WORLD

Camarillo CROP Hunger Walk

March 14 - 31

We're still walking together - but apart!

The Covid pandemic has disrupted food systems, and the most vulnerable are facing an unprecedented food crisis. While we cannot walk together, we can raise funds to fight hunger for our neighbors worldwide and around the corner.

March 14 kicks off the virtual event, but individuals and households can walk as much or as little, in the place of their choosing and when they wish between March 14 and March 31.

Join us with your steps or sponsorship. Fr. Patrick will walk 7 miles. Sponsor walkers or register online under Camarillo walk Padre Serra's TEAM.

Register and donate online today at www.padreserra.org/news/crop-walk

Hospitality Ministers Needed

Matthew 22:39 - Love your neighbor as yourself

To make sure that we are all as safe as possible at Mass, we need ministers who are as lovingly assertive as they are welcoming.

Responsibilities are to ensure that people sanitize as they arrive, wear their masks properly, and maintain a six feet distance from those outside their household.

We especially need people willing to serve at the 4:00 pm Masses on Saturday and Sunday. If you'd be comfortable in this role, sign up today at www.padreserra.org/news/hospitality

Blood Drive

Sunday, March 21
10:00 am - 2:00 pm
Serra Center

You can save a life! Only healthy people are encouraged to come give blood. Donors must be feeling well and free of respiratory illness symptoms, including fever, to be eligible to donate. We are checking donors' temperatures upon check-in and masks are required to be worn by all donors. We are using CDC guidelines for social distances at our donor centers and blood drives.

To schedule an appointment call (805) 543-4290 or visit www.padreserra.org/news/blood-drive

VIA ZOOM ONLY

Part of Holy Family's Friday Lenten "Lucis" Speaker Series

"Lucis" means "light" and comes from the Latin verb "lucere" meaning "to shine".

Each Friday during Lent, Holy Family will have a powerful and enlightening presentation by well-known national and local speakers.

Only Jesus, among all humans, chose his own biological father, entrusting his helpless infant self into Joseph's hands. Using the Bible as our starting point, our evening will look at this marvelous, enigmatic and selfless man, as we celebrate the "Year of St Joseph." The Scriptures attest that Joseph was a righteous man. By examining him, perhaps we could solidify our own righteousness as disciples of the Son he adopted.

Rev. J. Patrick Mullen serves as Pastor at Padre Junipero Serra parish in Camarillo, CA. He received his doctorate in biblical studies (New Testament) from the Graduate Theological Union in 1999. He served for over 20 years as professor of Scripture at St. John's Seminary in Camarillo. Mullen is the author of Dining with Pharisees, a regular contributor to "Weekday Homily Helps," and a speaker for Now You Know Media and is a nationally known speaker and lecturer.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that
You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire you with
all my heart.
Since I cannot receive You
now sacramentally,
I ask You to come
into my heart spiritually.
I embrace You as if
You were already in my heart,
and unite myself
to You completely.
Please do not ever let me
be far from You.
Amen.

He himself understood it well (Jn. 2:25b)

Dear Friends,

Today's second reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians provides a valuable lens through which to view our Lenten discipline, our sufferings and those of Jesus Christ during his life and death on earth, and those experienced by his Body now – our brothers and sisters.

Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

In today's Gospel, when Jesus drives the money changers out of the temple, he is challenged, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" His answer "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up" seems foolish as his challengers' retort indicates: "This temple has been under construction for 46 years, and you will raise it up in 3 days?" The pivotal verse comes next: "But he was speaking about the temple of his body."

When we are suffering, or looking at the immense suffering of our world, wondering why God allows it, we can cling to the fact that Jesus was no stranger to our experience, that he understood human nature well and in fact suffered appallingly and for our sake because he loves us. Because God loves us.

This is where our hope lies: in Jesus Christ, the son of God, fully human and like us in all things but sin. His crucifixion is a stumbling block and foolishness, but the suffering brought about by his obedience was the path to the glory of his resurrection and to ours. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Fr. Eugene Walsh, SS used to say something like this:

God loves you.
Your life has meaning.
You're going to live forever.
If you find a better deal, take it!

Becoming Catholic

The Scrutinies

Lent is an important time for the Elect who are in their final period of preparation for initiation into the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and first reception of Eucharist. On the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent, they will celebrate three important rites called scrutinies. The purpose of the scrutinies is to uncover and then heal whatever is weak and sinful in the Elect ... and in us, as we pray together. The scrutinies also are meant to bring out and strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. (RCIA #141) By celebrating these rites with the parish community on three successive Sundays, the Elect reflect ever more deeply on the mystery of sin and the power of Christ to overcome sin. Please continue to pray for our Elect as they draw nearer to the sacraments.

In the Community

Virtual Lenten Retreat ~ March 13

Back to Gospel Basics with Fr. Parker Sandoval. In this time of distinguishing essentials from non-essentials, you are invited to spend some time reflecting on the essential Catholic matter: the Gospel. 10:00 am - 12:00 pm, via Zoom. Register today

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

John 2:13-25 ~ Purifying the temple and our hearts

For Israel, the temple was a sign of the presence of God. Jesus is angry because it is no longer conveying the message and being used for commercial activity. In his anger, he overturns the money changers' tables. What needs to be turned over in your life in order to purify your heart and be more open to God's presence?

Jesus cleanses the Temple

Jesus went to the Temple in Jerusalem. When he saw people selling cattle, sheep and doves, and people trading with money-changers—right there in the Temple—he was upset. “Stop making my Father’s house a marketplace!” he cried out! In these drawings of Jesus cleansing the Temple, can you find 10 things that are different?

- ANSWERS:
1. The chicken has changed position.
  2. The money bag is bigger.
  3. There is one more sheep.
  4. The praying people are distracted by the noise.
  5. The cage seller has lost his big beard.
  6. One of the cages has been moved.
  7. The woman singing praises in the back has stripes on her robe.
  8. The scroll is now much longer.
  9. Jesus has black hair.
  10. The doves are escaping.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus wanted Simon, Andrew, James, and John to follow him.

And they did! Cross out all the letters a, y, and z below.

Then write the letters that are left in order onto the line on the boat.

This will spell what these four men were.
