Since he was a righteous man...

St. Joseph from the Sacred Scriptures
with Fr. Patrick Mullen

Monday, May 17, 7:00 - 8:30 pm, via Zoom

Only Jesus, among all humans, chose his biological father, entrusting his helpless infant self into Joseph's hands. Using the Bible as our starting point, our evening will look at this marvelous, enigmatic, and selfless man as we celebrate the "Year of St. Joseph." By examining him, perhaps we could solidify our righteousness as disciples of the Son he adopted. Join Fr. Patrick Mullen in this powerful enlightening presentation.

*Rev. J. Patrick Mullen serves as Pastor at Padre Serra Parish in Camarillo, CA. He received his doctorate in biblical studies (New Testament) from the Graduate Theological Union in 1999. He served for over 20 years as a professor of Scripture at St. John's Seminary in Camarillo. Mullen is the author of Dining with Pharisees, a regular contributor to "Weekday Homily Helps," and a speaker for Now You Know Media and is a nationally known speaker and lecturer.*

Michael Joncas

Refrain

There is no great - er love, says the Lord, than to lay down your life for a friend; there is no great - er love, no great - er love, than to lay down your life for a friend.

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Live on in my love. You will live in my love if you keep my commands, even as I have kept my Father's.

All this I tell you that my joy may be yours and your joy may be complete. Love one another as I have love you: This is my command.

You are my friends if you keep my commands; no longer slaves but friends to me. All I heard from my Father. I have made known to you: Now I call you friends.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the
 living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Initiation in a time of COVID-19

My Dear Parish Family,

The current pandemic with its changing restrictions has affected all of us in a myriad of ways. Padre Serra Parish has taken steps to make sure the virus does not spread through participation in our various activities. The creative ideas and hard work of many generous people, staff and volunteers, have accomplished this. Over the past year-plus we have adjusted to on-line and outside liturgies including sacraments, physical distancing and Zoom meetings. Through it all we are still alive and even thriving as a parish community! Thanks be to God, this is also true for our Rite of Christian Initiation, the process through which adults, teens and school-age children become Catholics.

On May 2, at the 5:00 pm Mass, 8 people were initiated into the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and first reception of Holy Communion. (Their pictures grace the cover of today's bulletin.) Although they began the initiation process before COVID-19 restrictions were in place, they faithfully continued through on-line catechetical instruction, Zoom meetings after Sunday Mass to break open the scripture readings, and rites adapted to social distancing. We thank God for the technologies that have made these opportunities possible. We are blessed to have these new members who grow and enhance our community.

During this past pandemic year we also had several candidates, baptized in other Christian traditions, received into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church. (Their receptions were highlighted in previous bulletins.) This month we will have 100 children, baptized as infants, receive their First Holy Communion. Later in the year 90 adults and teens will complete their initiation through the sacrament of Confirmation. We thank God for the gift of their presence, young and old, among us.

Despite the pandemic, or perhaps because of it, the sacraments of initiation continue to be celebrated with great joy here at Padre Serra. In today's Gospel Jesus says, "It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain ..." Jesus has chosen each of us, whether we were initiated this year or many years ago. He gives us the sacraments to nourish and strengthen us to bear good fruit in good times and difficult times. As we celebrate with those who receive the sacraments this month, may we gain a renewed appreciation of our own initiations. Let us thank God for the gift of his sacraments especially in this time of COVID-19.

Blessings,

Catherine

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

John 15:9-17 ~ So I have loved you

Today's readings continue the theme of love with the message that God has loved us, so, therefore, we must love one another. Love demands all we are, to the point of giving up life for the sake of another. God is the source and object of our love. In the second reading, St. John tells us "This is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us." In your relationship with God, do you find yourself more comfortable pondering your love for God or God's love for you? Challenge for the week: Is there someone in your life to whom you find it hard to express your love? Send them a text or call them. Express your love for them.
