GATHERING

All Are Welcome

Marty Haugen, Gather #850

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live.
A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
Rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions:

Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true,
Where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND GIFTS

The Cry of the Poor

John Foley, Gather #47

I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas;
and to hearts broken, God is near, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Every spirit crushed, God will save: will be ransom for their lives;
will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor.

We proclaim your greatness, O God; your praise ever in our mouth;
Every face brightened in your light, for you hear the cry of the poor.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Memorial Acclamation

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord
until you come again, until you come again.

Amen

Amen. Amen.
Alleluia, Amen!

Lamb of God

Lamb of God,
you take away the sins of the world.
Have mercy on us, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sins of the world.
Have mercy on us, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sins of the world.
Grant us peace, grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter un-der my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION SONGS

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

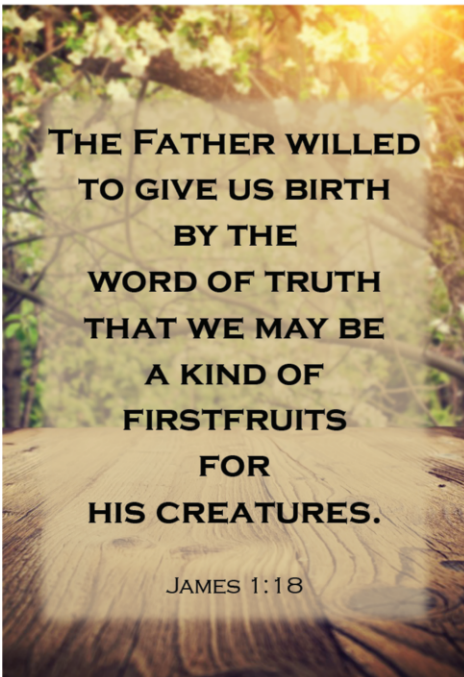

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
I the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
2. There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.
3. For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.

REFRAIN

So be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is

Oh, may our lives be mer - ci - ful.

Is the sky falling? It's fallen before.

Dear Friends,

What we hear from the prophet Isaiah in today's first reading seems especially pertinent as we enter the eighteenth month of very strange times for our world, our nation, and our church (both local and global). The pandemic and the polarizing effect it has had, worries about environment and climate, economic uncertainty and inequality, racial justice concerns, natural disasters, instability in places like Afghanistan, increasing stridency in politics, and even divisiveness in our church – all of these have, for many, induced a weariness and debilitating fear, and understandably so.

During Isaiah's time Israel was in dire straits too. They were attacked by the Assyrians in the north, and even Jerusalem was surrounded by Sennacherib's army. What Isaiah wrote in chapter 35 (the beginning of today's reading) was this:

Thus says the LORD:

Say to those whose hearts are frightened:

Be strong, fear not!

Here is your God,

he comes with vindication;

with divine recompense

he comes to save you.

What we know that those of Isaiah's time did not is that Jesus is the fulfillment of that promise. Most of those with Jesus when he walked the earth also did not recognize him as Messiah, as Savior. Happy are we who do! But from what is Jesus delivering us? Is it just assurance of escaping punishment for our sins? Of seeing our departed loved ones in the afterlife? Or is it the gospel of prosperity – if we just have enough faith then Jesus will deliver us from poverty and illness? I think it's more than that. I think it's the gift of knowing that Jesus – human like us in everything (including temptations) but sinless – walks with us, embraces us in all our frailties, and promises to be with us always.

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened,

the ears of the deaf be cleared;

then will the lame leap like a stag,

then the tongue of the mute will sing.

We hear of Jesus in the Gospels doing all of these things that Isaiah foretold. In today's gospel he heals a man suffering deafness and muteness. In Advent, we refer to Jesus as Emmanuel which means "God with us." It is Jesus, today, by our embrace of the mission he gives us at baptism to go out and preach the gospel to all, who fulfills Isaiah's prophecy. We all have to do our part. But what of our weariness, our fear? God will "strengthen hands that are feeble, make firm knees that are weak" to equip us for the task by means of Word and Sacrament. Let's support one another as we live out the Good News.

Safeguard the Children

Prep Your Children with Scripts to Stay Safe

Role-playing with your children is a critical step in keeping them safe from abuse, peer pressure, and other dangerous situations. Prep your children with the language they need to say “stop,” or “no thanks,” or to express any discomfort. Talk through different scenarios with them and have them practice how they would respond in their own words. Arming children with strong and confident responses to uncomfortable situations will help them draw on those words when they need them. For more information, read the VIRTUS article “Ten prevention practices you may not have considered” at lacatholics.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/07/Ten-preventions.DYK-AUG-7-8.14-5.2021.pdf

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We can wash dirt from our hands and bodies to get clean.
But only God can make our hearts clean by forgiving our sins!

Read the number on each bar of soap.

Then draw that number of bubbles around it.

When you've finished, thank God for the forgiveness that makes our hearts clean.
