What Every Serious Christian Should Know About Judaism

Rabbi Michael Lotker

Tuesday, October 19
7:00 pm, Serra Center

Did you know that Judaism is much more than the religion of the Hebrew Bible? Did you know that Jews have sacred literature beyond the Hebrew Bible (that we have our own "New Testament")? Did you know that Jews mean something completely different than Christians when we speak of the Messiah, sin, redemption, salvation, repentance, and forgiveness? Come and question, learn and explore with Rabbi Michael Lotker, author of A Christian's Guide to Judaism.

GATHERING

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name.

— Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning, It's time to sing Your song again. Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me, Let me be singing when the evening comes.
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger. Your name is great and Your heart is kind. For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing; Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.
3. And on that day, when my strength is failing, The end draws near, and my time has come; Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

Psalm 128: Blest Are Those Who Love You

Marty Haugen, Gather #86

Blest are those who love you, hap - py those who fol-low you, blest are those who seek you, O God.

1. Happy all those who fear the Lord, and walk in God's pathway; you will find what you long for: the riches of our God.
2. Your spouse shall be like a fruitful vine in the midst of your home, your children flourish like olive plants rejoicing at your table.
3. May the blessings of God be yours all the days of your life, may the peace and the love of God live always in your heart.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Love makes us One

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday's readings speak on the gift and vocation of marriage. As a married woman, I can't help but think this week's readings are meant for me. But the more I read and reflect on them it is clear this message is for us all.

In our first reading we are reminded that at creation, the Lord recognized we would need a companion. "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." In God's ultimate wisdom, a rib was taken from Adam's side and from it he created Eve. I have always found this so interesting; God could have begun new, just like he did with Adam and his other creations. However for Eve, God created her from Adam, as to say you are both of the same substance, truly one body. In the same way that God made us in his image, we (his church) become One Body through Jesus.

In our second reading we are reminded of God's love for us and his desire of our salvation is so great, he willingly takes on suffering and death. "He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin." And once again reminds us that we are one in Jesus.

Finally in our Gospel, Jesus is questioned about divorce. Even though as a married person I can and should take this literally; this speaks to us all, single, consecrated life, all ages. Many times in the Bible, the union of husband and wife has been compared to that of Christ and the church. Jesus is the bridegroom and the Church (us) is his bride. Just like a man and woman leave their parents and are joined and become one. When we truly follow Jesus, we too make a commitment to leave everything that is not of God behind, pick up our Cross and Follow Him. A marriage between a husband and wife, requires love, commitment, sacrifice, being present, giving of ourselves, and taking care of the needs of your beloved. Our relationship with God requires all the same things. The connection so close that you are no longer two but one being. When we are truly one, the wins of our beloved are also our own. I won't pretend to make it seem married life is easy and perfect — we are human after all. But in Jesus we truly have the perfect bridegroom. It is us who fail, at times we think I am committed to God, but I forget to see God dwells in my brother and sister, the marginalized, the forgotten, the vulnerable. "Let your love for one another be intense, because love covers a multitude of sins." 1Peter 4:8

Faith Sharing Question

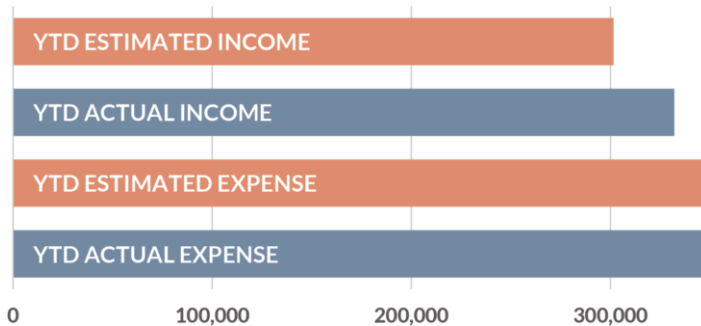

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Mark 10: 2-16 ~ Unite, Not Divide

We tend to divide up the people in this world — gender, race, ethnicity, citizenship, politics, economics, etc. But in today's gospel, Jesus tells us not to do that. Rather, his message is to see love as the binding force which holds us all together, united as one people, one family on earth. Who are the "us" and "them" in your community, and how can you resist this attitude?

October is Respect Life Month!

This year, we are focusing on St. Joseph, defender of life. His unhesitating adherence to God's will as he lovingly protected the Christ Child and the Blessed Mother bears witness to our call as Christians.

All human life is sacred, for we are made in our Creator, God's image and likeness. Every person created has dignity, worth and is loved by God. As Catholics, we are commanded to protect life from conception through natural death, including all issues humankind faces: poverty, mental health, suicide, violence, hunger, addiction, abortion, racism, housing, work, healthcare, voting, migrants, the environment, restorative justice, death penalty, education, special needs and disabilities, and so much more. Learning, action, and prayer are the keys to growing in empathy, mercy, and kindness.
