All Saints Day Mass

Monday, November 1, 8:00 am

Each year the Church honors all the saints, named and unknown, with a special feast day. The saints are not just those we look up to as examples of living holy lives; they are our friends in heaven. We believe that, together with them, we are one Church. They care about us, and we can ask them to pray for us as we journey to join them in heaven.

Pope Francis reminds us that we can all be holy in the context of our ordinary lives. Come to Mass to thank God for their example and friendship and strengthen us on our journey to be saints in our ordinary lives.

Not a holy day of obligation this year.

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:46-52

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for Your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

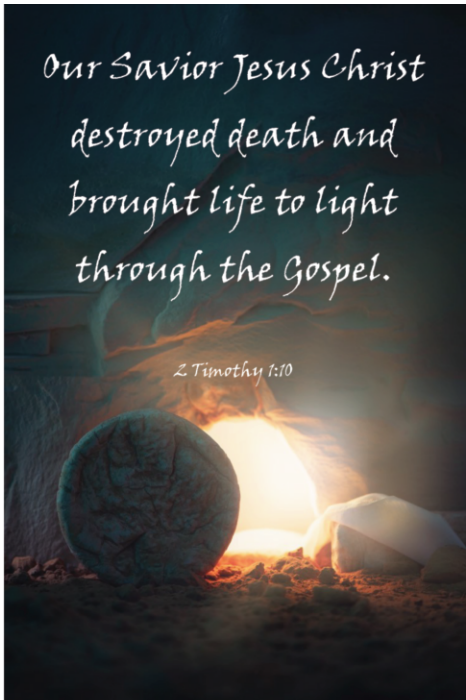

Amen.

When the Lord brought back the captives from Zion.
 We were like those in a dream.
 Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
 our tongue with rejoicing;
 We were like those in a dream.

Then they said among the nations the Lord has done great things for them,
 The Lord has done great things for us;
 we are glad, glad indeed, we are glad, glad indeed.

Restore our fortunes, O Lord,
 Like torrents in the southern desert,
 like the torrents in the southern desert.
 Those that sow in tears, those that sow in tears shall reap rejoicing, rejoicing, rejoicing.

Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed, the seed to be sown with their sheaves, they'll come back rejoicing.
 Oh, they'll come back rejoicing.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy
 Like the wideness of the sea;
 There's a kindness in God's justice
 Which is more than liberty.
 There is plentiful redemption
 In the blood that has been shed;
 There is joy for all the members
 In the sorrows of the Head.
2. There is welcome for the sinner,
 And a promised grace made good;
 There is mercy with the Savior;
 There is healing in Christ's blood.
 There is grace enough for thousands
 Of new worlds as great as this;
 There is room for fresh creations
 In that upper home of bliss.
3. For the love of God is broader
 Than the measure of the mind;
 And the heart of the Eternal
 Is most wonderfully kind.
 If our love were but more simple,
 We would know the living Word;
 And our lives would be thanksgiving
 In the kindness of the Lord.

REFRAIN

So be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is

 Oh, may our lives be mer - ci - ful.

All the People Said Amen

Matt Maher

You are not alone if you are lonely
When you're feeling frail, you're not the only
We are all the same in need of mercy
To be forgiven and be free
It's all you got to lean on but thank God, it's all you need

And all the people said Amen
Whoa, oh, and all the people said Amen
Give thanks to the Lord, for his love never ends
And all the people said Amen

If you're rich or poor, well, it don't matter Weak or strong, we know love is what we're after We're all broken but we're all in this together
God knows we stumble and fall
And he so loved the world he sent his son to save us all

And all the people said Amen
Whoa, oh, and all the people said Amen
Give thanks to the Lord, for his love never ends
And all the people said Amen

Blessed are the poor in spirit who are torn apart
Blessed are the persecuted and the pure in heart
Blessed are the people lonely for another start
For theirs is the kingdom, the kingdom of God

And all the people said Amen
Whoa, oh, and all the people said Amen
Give thanks to the Lord, for his love never ends
And all the people said Amen

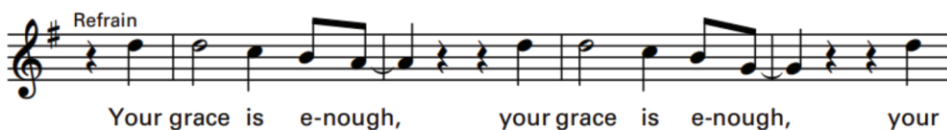

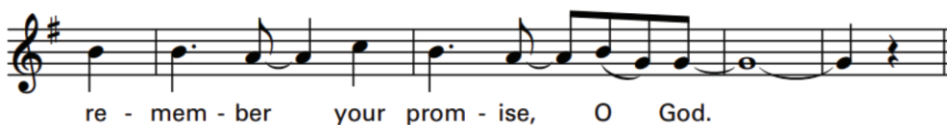

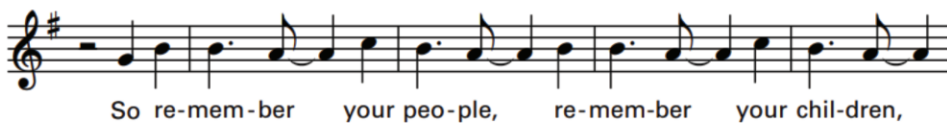

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord

SENDING FORTH

Your Grace Is Enough

Matt Maher

Great is Your faithfulness, O God;
You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart.
You lead us by still waters into mercy,
And nothing can keep us apart.

Great is your love and justice, God of Jacob.
You use the weak to lead the strong.
You lead us in the song of Your salvation.
And all Your people sing along.

The Courage to See

Dear Faith Family,

My favorite part about writing these letters, is that it gives me an excuse to really dive into the gospels with a different lens. This week's gospel, for example, is interesting.

When I looked at what reading would be proclaimed, the term "blind man" comes up very early. Obviously, whenever we see this term, we probably will know that it's the gospel where Jesus heals the blind man and is able to see. While it's good that we know these stories like the back of our hands, it can be a temptation to say "oh, I know where this is going" and stop reading.

The temptation was there for me. I could've easily written a letter that explains that this miracle proves that Jesus Christ is God (which is obviously true and life changing within itself), but I challenged myself to dive in further.

One thing that really stuck out to me is that Jesus asks his disciples to call the person who is calling out to Him. And even though the blind man is obviously yearning for Christ, he was still instructed to "have courage" to approach the Lord.

This is interesting for two reasons. First, Jesus relied on his disciples to bring those to Him. Our parish takes discipleship very seriously, and the most important aspect of discipleship is bringing others to Christ. His disciples don't shy away from their commission, and heed Jesus' command to bring the blind man to him, even if they had no idea what Christ would do for the blind man.

Secondly, it takes courage to do what Christ asks us to do. It's obvious that the blind man knew that Jesus can perform miracles, it still took courage to approach Him. It's like that in our lives sometimes. There are times when we KNOW what God is capable of, but we still need the courage to ask God to be God and to intervene/perform miracles.

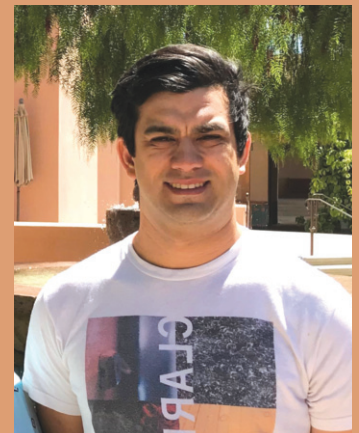

This is why scripture is interesting. Yes, we know the stories (the blind man). Yes, we know how they end (the blind now seeing). But sometimes we take that for granted. We know all the stories of the Old Testament and the miracles that Jesus performed, but when we dive in and meditate on scripture, it's much more than a biography of God's people — it's an instruction manual.

I don't know about you, but I am in constant need of instruction on how to be a disciple. When we dive into scripture, we get that instruction, even if it's hidden in plain sight. When we dive into scripture, we are telling our Lord, "I want to see."

I hope you all have a wonderful week!

Becoming Catholic

Various Paths to Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always takes into account the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic, but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's faith. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shaddock today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Mark 10:46-52 ~ I want to see

Earlier in the Gospel of Mark, there is a story of an unnamed blind man, whom Jesus heals in stages. In today's Gospel, Jesus cures the blind man named Bartimaeus immediately. The two stories reveal that the struggle to know the Lord, and the journey of faith, is lifelong. Which aspects of your life are unclear to you? Where is Jesus calling you to be right now?

The Pumpkin Prayer

Gracious God,

Open my mind so I can learn about you.
cut the top of the pumpkin

Take all my sin and forgive the wrong that I do.
clean the inside

Open my eyes so I will see your love
cut the eyes

I'm sorry for the times I've turned up my nose at what you've given me.
cut the nose

Open my ears so your Word I will hear.
cut the ears

Open my mouth to tell others about you cut the mouth

Let your light shine in all I say and do.
place a candle inside and light it

Amen.
