RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 18: I Love You, Lord, My Strength

Dominic MacAller

1. I love you, Lord, my strength,
O Lord my rock my fortress,
O Lord, my deliverer.

2. My rock of refuge, my shield,
the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.
Praised be the Lord, I shout, and I am safe,
safe from my enemies.

3. The Lord live, and blessed by my Rock, praise be to God, my Savior,
you who gave your King great victories
and showed kindness,
showed kindness to your Anointed.

You Are Not Far from the Kingdom of God

During the month of October, the Church asked us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. In November we remember the dead. It is also Indigenous Peoples month. Recently those involved in parish ministry signed that we received and would comply with the guidelines of the Archdiocese for those adults who interact with minors.

I offer an article, Young Women, #MeToo and Clergy Sex Abuse: Lessons from My Students,* in America Magazine. Written by Jessica Coblentz, an assistant professor in the Department of Religious Studies and Theology at Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind., she provides insight of the impact the changes made by the Church have had in the fifteen years since she was their age when the guidelines and training began. Hearing victims' stories and the acknowledgment of their victimization were crucial to this process. I believe such action has brought us closer to what is meant by the Kingdom.

I mention the article in the hope that such transformation of hearts by hearing and minds by recognizing the truth of oppression, violence, and the apartheid that instilled self-hate, despair, and death. My return to daily mass was greeted by the massive statue of St. Junipero while my heart and spirit were dealing with the discoveries at Kamloops Residential School in Canada. I pray for the intercession of our patron that we might receive the grace to know the stories of the women of Juarez, the Red Dresses of Canada, and the horse-whipped of Haiti. May the God of love inspire us to transformative love.

The love God desires is not for him alone, but for all the people he has created. Jesus affirms God cannot be loved without loving his creation, his image in our neighbor. Jesus tells us to what degree and with what we are to love. Our strength and understanding include loving ourselves. May it be so for our neighbor.

God in Deuteronomy teaches we write the law upon our heart such that our children will learn as we go about our daily life from the awakening to our sleeping. As Catholics, may they learn their call to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end. Together with our children, we change those laws that separate us from our neighbor and from God.

Becoming Catholic

Various Paths to Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always takes into account the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic, but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's faith. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shaddock today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Safeguard the Children

Have a Spooky and Safe Halloween

Here are a few tips to keep your holiday safe and fun! Before they go trick-or-treating, talk with your children about safety and set the ground rules. Young children should always trick or treat with an adult. Join up with friends or family and stick to neighborhoods you know, with houses that are lit and ready for trick-or-treaters. Stay on sidewalks when possible, and if children have a hard time walking between places, make a game of it — take significant steps, or march from house to house. For more information, please visit www.catholiccharitiesaz.org/item/140-tips-for-a-treat-filled-halloween

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Mark 12:28-34 ~ Love the Lord with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength; and love your neighbor as yourself.

This is a reaffirmation of the First Commandment and a proclamation, not a lesson. Love is proclaimed again with Jesus' New Commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves. How are you really doing with loving God, your neighbor, and yourself? Which is easiest? Which is more difficult?

All Saints Day Mass

Monday, November 1, 8:00 am

Each year the Church honors all the saints, named and unknown, with a special feast day. The saints are not just those we look up to as examples of living holy lives; they are our friends in heaven. We believe that, together with them, we are one Church. They care about us, and we can ask them to pray for us as we journey to join them in heaven.

Pope Francis reminds us that we can all be holy in the context of our ordinary lives. Come to Mass to thank God for their example and friendship and strengthen us on our journey to be saints in our ordinary lives.

Not a holy day of obligation this year.
