The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the
 living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Palm Sunday and the Procession of the Assembly

As a parish community, we gather in the courtyard on Palm Sunday to hear a short reading about our Lord's entry into Jerusalem seated upon a colt. Palms are blessed and distributed. We ask God to sanctify the palms with His blessing that we too may follow Christ the King and reach the eternal Jerusalem. We then process into the church holding our palms and singing "Hosanna."

Passion/Palm Sunday is celebrated with full acknowledgement of the ultimate reality: Jesus died and rose from the dead and is now seated at the right hand of God. We do not process as if we do not know the rest of the story. Jesus is addressed as the "the Son of David ... he who comes in the name of the Lord."

In our procession into the church, we are joyful, yet ever mindful of the price paid by our loving Lord to heal the wounded core of humanity. Our procession is a public proclamation of our faith and trust in God. A procession provides an opportunity for a fuller and richer expression of the prayer of the assembly. The celebration of the procession of Christ is not some historical reenactment.

Palm Sunday reminds us, ever more fully, that the path Jesus chose is also our path of discipleship. It is the path that leads to salvation.

When the procession is over, the singing of Hosanna continues in the Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, ... Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Becoming Catholic

You are invited to the Easter Vigil ~ April 16, 7:30 pm

The baptismal font is where our lives as Catholic Christians begin. It is the place where the sacrament of baptism is celebrated and where we bless ourselves with its holy water to remind ourselves of our life in Christ. On Holy Saturday evening at the Easter Vigil liturgy, the font is the focus of much of the night's activity. At this year's Vigil, six people will be immersed in the waters of the font. They also will be confirmed and receive Eucharist for the first time. This beautiful liturgy, the high point of the entire Church year, begins in the courtyard around a bonfire and continues with a procession into the church with lighted tapers. Come and join us in welcoming our new members! A reception will follow the Mass. If you are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Giving

St. John's Seminary

The mission of our next-door neighbor, and the seminary for our Archdiocese, is to prepare men for the priesthood. This year, St. John's has 52 seminarians. Along with their studies at St. John's, men spend an internship year at a parish, working under a pastor mentor. With the grace of God, nine seminarians will be ordained as new priests this summer for our Archdiocese. As these deacons enter their final months of prayer and preparation, please keep them in your prayers.
