In Christ Alone

1. In Christ a - lone my hope is found. He is my light, my strength, my song. This cor - ner-stone, this so - lid ground Firm through the fierc - est drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, When fears are stilled, when striv - ings cease, My com - fort - er, my all in all, Here in the love of Christ I stand. 2. In Christ a -

In Christ alone, Who took on flesh
 Fullness of God in helpless babe.
 This gift of love and righteousness
 Scorned by the ones He came to save.
 'Til on that cross as Jesus died,
 The will of God was satisfied.
 For ev'ry in on Him was laid,
 Here in the death of Christ I live.

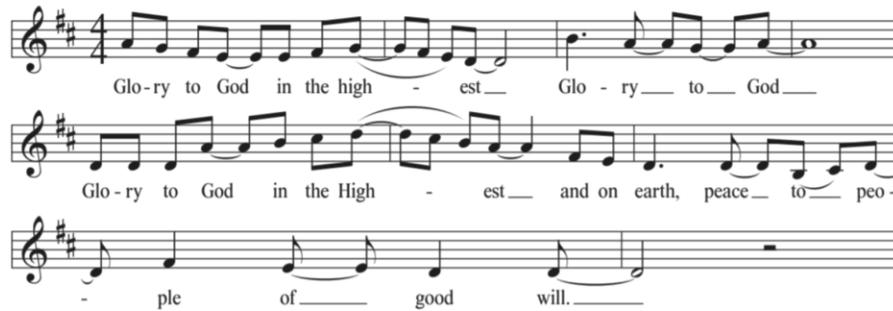

There in the tomb His body lay,
 light of the world by darkness slain.
 Then bursting forth in glorious day,
 up from the grave He rose again.
 And as he stands in victory,
 sin's curse has lost its grip on me
 For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 98: The Lord Has Been Revealed

Dominic MacAller

The Lord has re-vealed to the na - tions God's sav - ing pow'r, Al - le - lu - ia!

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done wondrous deeds; his right hand has won victory for him, his holy arm.

The Lord has made his salvation known: in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice. He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel,

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God. Sing joyfully to the Lord, all you lands: break into song, sing praise.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

Unless a Grain of Wheat

Refrain

Un-less a grain of wheat shall fall up-on the ground and die, it re-mains but a sin-gle grain with no life.

Text: Based on John 12:24-26; 14:23, 27; 15:4-5, 7-8; 2 Timothy 2:11-12. Text and music © 1983, Bernadette Farrell. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him;
if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

If anyone serves me, then they must follow me;
wherever I am, my servants will be.

Make your home in me as I make mine in you;
those who remain in me bear much fruit.

If you remain in me and my word lives in you;
then you will be my disciples.

Those who love me are loved by my father;
we shall be with them and dwell with them.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you;
peace which the world cannot give is my gift.

SENDING FORTH

Canticle of the Turning

Rory Cooney, Gather #622

My soul cries out with a joyful shout that the God of my heart is great.
And my spirit sings of the wondrous things that you bring to the ones who wait.
You fixed your sight on your servant's plight,
and my weakness you did not spurn.
So from east to west shall my name be blest.
Could the world be about to turn?
Though I am small, my God, my all,
you work great things in me,
And your mercy will last from the depths of the past to the end of the age to be.
Your very name puts the proud to shame,
and to those who would for you yearn,
You show your might, put the strong
To flight, for the world is about to turn.

My heart shall sing of the day you bring. Let the fires of your jus-tice burn. Wipe a-way all tears, for the dawn draws near, and the world is a-bout to turn!

Text: Luke 1:46-58; Rory Cooney, b.1952

Quiet Heroes

The question of racism will always be a hot button moral topic in these, our beloved United States. Our history is difficult, but I live in hope that we can have a better future than either our past or present. There has been a lot of anger expressed recently about racial injustice. My own sense is that while anger can motivate change, it can also entrench people in the worst thinking and actions. With that in mind, I worked with our fellow parishioner, Cynthia Jones-Campbell, to set up an evening, entitled “Our Truths,” where three parishioners, all mothers, all people of color, all well-educated and ably expressive, spoke from their own experiences raising their children in our shared world, here in Camarillo. It had been my hope that in their sharing, other parishioners could have a window into the concerns of our fellow parishioners of color where there has been a lot of pain. Our speakers included Cynthia, who is black, Dr. Martita Martinez-Bravo, a Latina, and Nirmala Bheemisetty, who was born in India. Due to the requirements of the time, they delivered their presentation on Zoom. A healthy number of parishioners and guests from neighboring parishes participated on-line. It was a powerful evening, in which they shared their dreams for their children, the events that frightened them and hurtful things that occurred. They shared moving stories, grit and determination. I found it very moving, myself.

As that evening was taking shape, during July of 2020, Cynthia and Martita helped form the parish’s racial justice ministry. It began encouraging a number of parallel efforts to help people engage in the subject of racism in a constructive manner in a broad number of settings.

In the same year, 2020, the parish PAX Christi group used the Ignatian Examen, in which the participants take a magnifying glass to daily life, seeking to have an encounter with God, as a lens for discussing racism and reconciliation from August to November of 2020.

Parishioners also participated in the Just Faith modules that focus on racial justice. There were two groups, one of which did all three eight-week modules on this challenging topic.

In the last two years, during the Lenten season, parishioners have been invited to participate in “Stations of the Cross: Overcoming Racism” at Padre Serra. In Lent of 2021 the stations needed to be virtual, but in 2022 they were in person.

From August to December of 2020, our wonderful Seeds of Faith women’s ministry, in which Cynthia was part of the leadership team, jumped into a deep-dive of the American bishops’ pastoral letter against racism, Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2018).

If all this wasn’t enough, Cynthia has also been on the leadership team of the Parish’s Divorce Support Group, and was a Women’s Retreat Team member in both 2019 and 2020. She has also served as a Eucharistic Minister at St. John’s Regional Hospital, and as an advanced directive notary. In the fall of 2020, she was also a founding member of the Ventura County Chapter of Catholic Relief Services.

On the last Monday of September, I drove down to the cathedral in Los Angeles for a gathering of all the priests of our archdiocese. Cynthia Jones-Campbell, who had been serving on an archdiocesan committee examining racism, came with me. The archdiocesan committee had heard of all the initiatives that Cynthia had spearheaded here at Padre Serra Parish, and wanted to use our efforts as an example to other parishes. We were invited to give a brief summary of what had happened here at Padre Serra before the assembled priests of the archdiocese, asking us to serve as a model for other parishes. It was an amazing moment!

Cynthia has done all of this work, quietly inviting others into a deeper journey of faith. She is truly one of the parish’s quiet heroes!

Siempre adelante!

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Luke 17:11-19 ~ Be grateful

Today’s gospel tells the story of healing. The ingratitude of the other lepers is a surprising account, but the fact that the one grateful returnee was a Samaritan was possibly more shocking at the time. The Samaritan is not only healed but is also saved through wholeness and a proper relationship with God. This past week, when have you stopped to thank someone for something good they have done for you? When have you thanked God for this week?

Entry is an appetizer to share, enough for 20. Please RSVP at www.padreserra.org/cana

Please come early; the truck will leave once filled. Items cannot be left in the office or food bin in church.
