In Christ Alone

Keith Getty & Stuart Townend

1. In Christ a - lone my hope is found. He is my light, my strength, my song. This cor - ner-stone, this so - lid ground Firm through the fierc - est drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, When fears are stilled, when striv - ings cease, My com - fort - er, my all in all, Here in the love of Christ I stand. 2. In Christ a -

In Christ alone, Who took on flesh
 Fullness of God in helpless babe.
 This gift of love and righteousness
 Scorned by the ones He came to save.
 'Til on that cross as Jesus died,
 The will of God was satisfied.
 For ev'ry in on Him was laid,
 Here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the tomb His body lay,
 light of the world by darkness slain.
 Then bursting forth in glorious day,
 up from the grave He rose again.
 And as he stands in victory,
 sin's curse has lost its grip on me
 For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est. Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 119: Happy Are They

Paul Inwood

Hap-py are they, hap-py are they who fol-low the law of the Lord.

They are happy whose life is blameless,
 who follow God's law!
 They are happy who do his will,
 seeking him, seeking him with all their hearts.

You have laid down your precepts
 to be obeyed with care, O Lord.
 May my footsteps be firm,
 my footsteps be firm to obey,
 to obey your statutes, O Lord.

Bless your servant and I shall live,
 obeying your word.

Open my eyes that I may consider the wonders,
 all the wonders of your law.

Matthew 11:25

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the
 living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Refrain

We are one, one in the bod - y, one in the Spirit of the Lord. Here, we be - come food for the hungry, drink for the thirst - y. At this ta-ble of love, by faith, we are all made one.

Beyond the bread we break,
we live the promise of new life.
Beyond the cup we take,
we share our lives with one another:
Then we'll know the presence of God.

As we receive your love,
we look to give love in return,
and we believe your love
will change our hearts to end divisions:
Then we'll know the presence of God.

Summoned as food for all,
we take the gospel to the world,
When do good for all,
we hear the call to choose compassion:
Then we'll know the presence of God.

Maximums / Minimums

In Mark 1:22, Jesus' audience was astonished at his teaching, "for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes," who could read and interpret the law, but couldn't legislate. In today's Gospel, we see Jesus exercising his authority. Every time he said, "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors...But I say to you..." he adopted God's position as legislator, higher than that of Moses who only received the law from God. When Jesus defined the law, just as God the Father does, he pushed for more noble and caring behavior than the earlier law required.

In the years when I was in the classroom, one of the clearest differences between students was the attitudes about "the course requirements." So many of them were hungry for knowledge, and pursued every avenue of learning with enthusiasm. But not all of them. It was so clear that some wanted to know exactly what they needed to do to pass the course, so they could do that much and no more. "Getting by" was sufficient for them. They lacked any passion for their studies. As a professor, I responded by providing minimums that were, if anything, fairly substantial, based on my experience of what priests would need to know to preach and teach the Scriptures well. I felt it was important to challenge the minimalists to something more meaty and enthusiastic. I didn't succeed with everyone, but I did with some, even many.

I see Jesus encouraging us, in this weekend's Gospel, to move ourselves beyond a minimalist approach to faith and life. There were behaviors that the Hebrew Scriptures permitted, in the more violent times of the past, which Jesus no longer accepted. He took a deep look at what the Torah permitted regarding how we deal with troublesome brothers (and sisters), how permanent are our marital relationships, how to respect people other than our spouses whom we find attractive, how to speak the truth without embellishment. In each case, Jesus references the old teaching, and then corrects or amplifies it. Jesus conceives of a maximalist Kingdom of God. In essence: let's do as much as possible to create the caring Kingdom of God. No settling for the least common denominator here.

You might consider where you are on this spectrum. Are you trying to do the least possible, just to squeak by, morally and spiritually speaking? Are you desiring to do more, but struggling to attend to all of life's demands? Is your relationship with the Lord the guiding value of your life to which you dedicate your heart with enthusiasm?

In whatever place you find yourself, I encourage you to take the next step, to hold yourself up to a yet higher standard. Let the bright light of Jesus' enthusiasm shine upon you, and respond with ever-greater commitment.

Siempre adelante!

Becoming Catholic

Encounter Jesus

The seven sacraments are essential to the Catholic way of life. The Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist incorporate us into His saving, death, and resurrection. The Eucharist nourishes and strengthens us to live as disciples of Jesus; it is also a sign of unity with Jesus and each other. For adults who seek the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist, contact adultinitiation@padreserra.org. For children aged six and older who have yet to be baptized, contact childreninitiation@padreserra.org. For adults who want to complete their sacraments with Confirmation, contact confirmation@padreserra.org. For more info, visit www.padreserra.org/becoming-catholic

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 5:17-37 ~ God's Commandments are a way of life.

The Law is God's gift of life. The holiness of Jesus' followers is a choice of life. Jesus gave six examples of how to follow the Law, four of which are in today's gospel. He declared that sin really begins with the decision before the action is taken. When you hear the word commandment, what do you feel? What did Jesus mean when he said he did not come to abolish but to fulfill the law of the prophets?

Giving

Angel Tags ~ Thank You!

Maria Santana, Catholic Chaplain at the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility, extends heartfelt and deep gratitude for your generosity in donating gift cards totaling $2,435 at Christmas. This allowed the chaplain to purchase items for Christmas goody bags and fresh tamales. The rest will cover ongoing faith events until the facility closes on June 30. Two different youths created images to symbolize their gratitude for being remembered and cared for by the community; one of the young men said, "I truly appreciate not being forgotten." Thank you!
