Care & Prepare

A Series on the End of Life
Tuesday, May 9
7:00 pm, Serra Center

What is Church teaching about the difficult choices that can occur near the end of life? How can I best care for my loved one and myself? What documents are important to have in place and why? Who do I call after my loved one dies? How can my parish help?

This second of four sessions will focus on caregiving. Teri Helton, MSN, RN, will focus on family vs. professionals and resources. Hannah Hoffman, LCSW, will address self-care, compassion, and guilt; Patricia Sentionin, RN, will share about our parish's caregiver support group.

Free. Registration helpful, visit www.padreserra.org/care-prepare

Psalm 118: This Is the Day

Bobby Fisher

This is the day! This is the day! This is the day that the Lord has made! Let us re-joyce!

Let us re-joyce! Let us re-joyce and be glad!

Final time only
Let us re-joyce and be glad!

This is the day that the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad.

The right hand of God has struck with power. The right hand of God is exalted. I shall not die, but I shall live and proclaim the works of the Lord.

Give thanks to the Lord! Our God is good whose love endures forever. Let all the children of Israel say: God's love endures forever.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

I Have Seen the Lord

Bob Hurd

REFRAIN

I have seen the Lord, I have heard his voice, and I know he lives, and I know he lives.
Death, where is your sting? Fear, where is your grip?
Hearts now free to love; lives now free to give.

If we die with Christ, we shall rise with him; if we share his passion, we shall reign with him.

No greater love can there be than this; to spend one's life to give life.

In our fragile flesh, the dying of the Lord; in our faithful living, his life revealed.

The Way

Dear friends on the way,

Ever since I saw the movie The Way with Martin Sheen in 2014, I have been intrigued, inspired by, and a little obsessed with El Camino de Santiago, or the Way of St. James. Often called simply the Camino, this centuries-old 500-plus-mile walking pilgrimage across Spain concludes in Santiago de Compostela, a city in western Spain and the home of a cathedral where the remains of St. James the apostle are said to have been buried. Pilgrimages like the Camino are not only about the destination, generally a religious, holy site, but more about the journey itself on which people embark to connect with God and self, for transformation and self-discovery, and to experience the graces that come with a spiritual pilgrimage.

If you are unfamiliar with the movie, the drama tells the story of a grieving father who walks the Camino and finds healing, new meaning and purpose, and evaluates his relationships and priorities, all the while experiencing physical and mental challenges, difficult situations, detours, laughter, and friendship and enjoying good food and drink.

So, Jesus' words in today's gospel from John, "I am the way and the truth and the life," call to mind Sheen's movie as well as the post resurrection apostolic Christian movement known as the Way.

The early community of Jewish Christian followers of Jesus called themselves that because they lived in a new way. "The way and the truth and the life" was not only Jesus' self-identification but also the one who connects us to God. Jesus' life and teachings were all about thinking, acting, loving, and approaching all of life differently, namely to live in harmony with God and one another.

In today's first reading from Acts, we hear how seriously the early Christians took Jesus' words. They were deeply concerned that "their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution" and responded by appointing deacons to care for widows and all the vulnerable. Clearly, they put into practice all that Jesus taught about caring for those in need and working together in community.

Like any pilgrimage, our life's Camino has a holy destination, that glorious dwelling place in God's house prepared specially by Jesus for each of us. Today's readings are a reminder that there is a specific path to our dwelling place. Jesus is "the way and the truth and the life." Jesus is the path, the way, the Camino. We need only to look to Jesus' example of how to live in harmony with God and with one another. Yes, on this Camino, we will stumble, fall, and fail, but if we consistently seek Jesus, make him our shepherd, I am confident we will experience mini conversions and transformations that cause us to think, act, and love in Jesus' way.

Hopefully, laughter, friendship, and good food and drink will grace us along the way. I'm hoping my room is a large dining room with a long table, comfy chairs, twinkle lights, candles, flowers, delicious meals (that always include potatoes and cheese), wine, music, and all the amazing people I have met on the way.

Siempre Adelante,

Teresa Runyon
Pastoral Associate

P.S. Fr. Patrick has walked the Camino twice and shares his experience on his website www.pilgrimheart.org.

Becoming Catholic

The Sacraments

The seven sacraments are essential to the Catholic way of life. They are marvelous gifts from God and might be described as blessed, grace-filled moments along our earthly journey. Each sacrament is an encounter with the risen Jesus. Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist are called the Sacraments of Christian Initiation because they incorporate us into the saving, death, and resurrection of Jesus (the “Paschal Mystery”). Padre Serra is blessed to have 14 neophytes — newly initiated Catholics — who inspire the whole church to holiness and openness to God’s call. If you would like to investigate receiving the Sacraments of Initiation, please get in touch with us at (805) 482-6417 x321 or becomingcatholic@padreserra.org. John 14:1-12 ~ The Way

In today’s gospel, Jesus declares that he is “the way, the truth, the life” and gives the disciples direction for their work and life going forward. Jesus asks us to do as he does. So how do you try to follow Jesus’ way? How do you focus on doing God’s will for the good of all humanity in your daily life?
