GATHERING

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name
 — Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
 It's time to sing Your song again.
 Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
 Let me be singing when the evening comes.

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
 Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
 For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
 Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

And on that day, when my strength is failing,
 The end draws near, and my time has come;
 Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
 Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

Bread for the world: a world of hun - ger. Wine for all peo - ples: peo - ple who thirst. May we who eat be bread for oth - ers. May we who drink pour out our love.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life,
 broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
 Where we divide your people you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace,
 poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps.
 Where we are tired and weary, you are waiting there to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.

Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast,
 at which the rich and pow'rful have become the least.
 Where we survive on others in our human greed,
 you walk among us begging for your ev'ry need.

SENDING FORTH

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.

So be mer - ci-ful, just as our God is mer - ci-ful. — Be mer - ci-ful, just as our God is mer - ci-ful to us. Let there be a wide-ness in our mer-

- cy. Let there be a kind-ness in our hearts.

Oh, may our lives — be mer - ci - ful. —

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend once again we celebrate Catechetical Sunday. A day to celebrate and pray for the Church's mission to teach the gospel to all people. Those individuals, catechists and teachers, moms, dads, grandparents and loving adults will be called forward, blessed and sent out, to minister the children, youth and adults of the parish community. The root of the word Catechesis comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo, or resound." Catechism is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world. A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church. This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church has a profound dignity, which is why catechists are formally commissioned by the Church.

On this day we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation.

Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children. This has become even more evident in the recent years with the pandemic, so many of you became the academic teachers. You are always the first and most important source of faith to the children in your life.

This is why the rite of blessing of catechists used on Catechetical Sunday includes a blessing of parents and guardians. You too will be commissioned and blessed, in your vocation and mission.

To all catechists in our lives, parents and grandparents, priests and deacons, religious sisters, church family, all who have been encounters of Jesus in our lives, we thank you!

Tere Delgado
Faith Formation Minister

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 18:21-35 ~ We are called to forgive others as Jesus forgives us.

In today's gospel, we hear the message that vengeance must not be multiplied rather forgiveness should be multiplied. God is forgiving; we are made in God's image. God will judge us by the measure of our forgiveness of one another. Our mutual forgiveness will reveal how the image of God lives in us. Who needs your forgiveness? From whom do you need to ask forgiveness?
