We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 131: In You Lord

Trevor Thomson

In you, Lord, I have found my peace,

I have found my peace in you, Lord.

O Lord my heart is not proud,
 nor are my eyes haughty
 I busy not myself with great things, nor things too sublime for me.

I have stilled, I have quieted my soul O Lord.
 Like a little child on his mother's lap
 so is my soul within me.

You have but one Father in heaven
and one master,
the Christ.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

*May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands.
for the praise and glory of His Name.
for our good and the good of all His holy Church.*

God of Wonders

Marc Byrd & Steve Hindalong

Lord of all creation
Of water, earth and sky
The heavens are Your tabernacle Glory to the Lord on high

God of wonders beyond our galaxy
You are holy, holy
The universe declares Your majesty

Canticle of the Turning

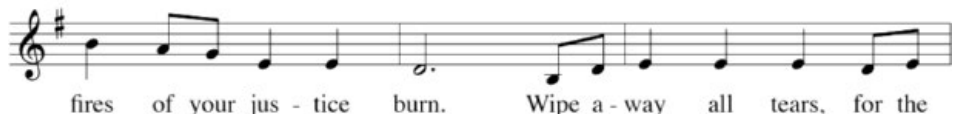

Rory Cooney, Gather #622

My soul cries out with a joyful shout that the God of my heart is great.
And my spirit sings of the wondrous things that you bring to the ones who wait.
You fixed your sight on your servant's plight,
and my weakness you did not spurn.
So from east to west shall my name be blest.
Could the world be about to turn?

Though I am small, my God, my all,
you work great things in me,
And your mercy will last from the depths of the past to the end of the age to be.
Your very name puts the proud to shame,
and to those who would for you yearn,
You show your might, put the strong
To flight, for the world is about to turn.

My heart shall sing of the day you bring. Let the fires of your jus - tice burn. Wipe a - way all tears, for the dawn draws near, and the world is a - bout to turn!

Genuine Discipleship

Dear friends on the journey,

For several weeks now our gospels have been focused on Jesus' ministry in Judea and Jerusalem. His teachings and miracles have created considerable tension with the Jewish religious leaders who feel challenged by Jesus' authority. Jesus has not backed down to this point and in today's gospel, he calls out the scribes and Pharisees about their own preaching that is not backed up by their practice. They seem to have the proverbial "do as I say, not as I do" attitude.

As important as those words were then, they are equally important for us today. Jesus challenges us to gauge our own attitude of "walking the talk." He invites us to reflect on our religious integrity by asking ourselves: Do my words and actions match up? In what area of my life might I be a hypocrite, preaching but not acting accordingly? Am I condemning those who cast judgment on others all the while judging my next-door neighbor's yard? Am I quick to point out others who complain and in the next breath grumble about a relative's behavior? There's the old joke about Catholics who have just gone to Mass and navigate the parking lot like the devil. Am I outwardly appearing to be a good Christian but lack the true motivation? Or am I simply unaware that a deeper relationship can exist with God? I call this being religious but not spiritual. I realized this was my early Catholic faith experience, until about twelve years ago when I had an "aha" moment that I was "doing" all the right things but lacked a true personal relationship with God.

In reality, it happens to all of us but, as Christian disciples, we are called to a higher standard, to move beyond just following the commandments, rules, and checking the boxes, nor concerning ourselves with saying the right words, wearing the tassels, and having the titles. Living out our faith goes beyond just words or rituals.

Living out our faith is about how we connect with others and lead by example. Today's second reading from I Thessalonians gives us a model to live out and share our faith through loving relationships, like a mother's care for her children, through heartfelt, genuine connections with others. Discipleship is not a one-time agreement. Rather it is a life of humble servanthood, a lifelong journey of mini conversions and aha moments that stretch us, that bring about spiritual growth, and that deepen our personal relationship with God. Discipleship is the ongoing review and adjustment of our lives to align ourselves with Jesus' teachings and example.

That strengthened relationship with God will then be authentically reflected in our words, actions, and relationships. True faith shines in our actions, our care of one another, and our commitment to living by the values we profess.

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 23:1-12 ~ True discipleship is based on conversion.

Jesus criticizes the religious leaders for not practicing what they preach. This theme highlights the importance of congruency between one’s words and actions in religious life. Do I practice what I preach? Am I receptive to God’s message in my life, allowing it to affect me deeply? How can I avoid seeking material gain or praise in my efforts to share my faith?

Becoming Catholic

Various Paths to Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always considers each person’s unique background, circumstances, and needs. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet Mary to explore the possibilities and create a plan for you. Or perhaps you want to learn more about your spouse’s faith. It’s OK to “test the waters” by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it’s like. We meet every other Tuesday evening in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions without judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Mary Huebner today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x321 or becomingcatholic@padreserra.org. Visit www.padreserra.org/becoming-catholic
