Finding Comfort in the Passion of Christ

June 7 - 9

Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center, Sierra Madre

Register in the courtyard:

GATHERING

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name
 — Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name. —

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
 It's time to sing Your song again.
 Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
 Let me be singing when the evening comes.

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
 Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
 For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
 Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

And on that day, when my strength is failing,
 The end draws near, and my time has come;
 Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
 Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

Psalm 32: I Turn to You

Kathleen MacAller

A great prophet has arisen
in our midst,

God has visited his people.

Luke 7:16

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trou-ble, and you fill me with the joy of sal - va - tion.

1. Blessed are they whose fault is taken away, whose very sins are covered.
Blessed the one to whom the Lord imputes not guilt,
in whose Spirit, there is no guile.
2. Then I acknowledged my sin to you,
my guilt I covered not.
I said, "I confess my faults to the Lord,"
you took away the guilt of my sin.
3. Be glad and rejoice you just Exult, exult you upright of heart.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

For God So Loved the World

Marty Haugen, Gather #580

Refrain

For God so loved the world, God gave the on - ly Son, so that ev-'ry-one who be-lieves in him may not die, but have life.
Last time to Coda
 So much God loved the world, so much God loves the world.

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us; full of grace, full of truth, he made his home. He came to his own who would know him not, though all who behold him, all who receive him are called the children of God.

As Moses lifted up the serpent so that all who looked to it might live, the Son of Man must be lifted up so that all who believe, all who look to him may have eternal life.

God's Son came not to condemn the world, but that the world may be saved through him, and all who believe in the Son of God shall come to the light, and live in the light, and dwell in the heart of God.

Text: John 1:11-12, 14, 3:14-17, 21; Marty Haugen, b.1950, and Susan Briehl, b.1952

 for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His holy Church.

Bread for the World

Bernadette Farrell

Refrain: All

Bread for the world: a world of hun-ger. Wine for all peo-les: peo-ple who thirst. May we who eat be bread for oth-ers. May we who drink pour out our love.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life,
 broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
 Where we divide your people you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace,
 poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps.
 Where we are tired and weary, you are waiting there to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.

Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast,
 at which the rich and pow'rful have become the least.
 Where we survive on others in our human greed,
 you walk among us begging for your ev'ry need.

 Jesus, you're all this heart is living for.

Broken, I run to you,

Separated From You, Let Me Never Be

Hello Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus is moved to compassion by the suffering of a leper. To prepare us for the scene from the Gospel of Mark, the Church gives us an essential complimentary first reading from the Old Testament. In the first reading from Leviticus, we are told what it meant to be a leper for a first-century Jew. We are reminded that a person with leprosy was considered ritually unclean and was forced to live in perpetual isolation outside of the community. For the Jews of this time, ritually clean and unclean was a serious matter. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus is going to shock the Jewish witnesses to this event when he touches the unclean but remains untainted. Jesus, moved by pity and compassion for an isolated soul, will heal so that the healing can be certified as prescribed by Jewish law, and this former outcast will be allowed to rejoin the community.

We learn that the leper approaches Jesus, kneeling humbly, and does not ask to be healed but to "make me clean." The weight of isolation that the leper was experiencing must have been more painful than the physical effects of the leprosy. To remove the stain of unclean is what the leper desired most. Sin can affect us in a similar way and cause us to become distant from God. In the Sacrament of Confession, we too, through the infinite mercy of God, can receive that relief that the leper felt when Jesus said, "I do will it. Be made clean". This scene occurs early in the Gospel of Mark, but we can see the symbolism of the beginning of Jesus's redemptive mission in this miracle of curing the leper. In the Sacrament of Confession, we also come humbly and contrite of heart to ask our Lord to reconcile us to God and keep us in communion with his Church. Jesus never fails to renew us and feed our ongoing conversion. When we strive to change our minds and to live how Jesus is calling us, we move along on our path of conversion. Conversion is our lifelong endeavor, and the Church that Jesus founded gives us the path to be continually renewed.

We will enter Lent next Wednesday, and as we prepare to renew our baptismal commitment, let us seek that inner conversion of the heart to follow Christ more faithfully. The season of Lent is the perfect time to embrace the gift of the Sacrament of Confession so that we are never distant from God. "The whole power of Penance consists in restoring us to God's grace and joining us with him in intimate friendship" (CC1468).

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Mark 1:40-45 ~ Healing and Renewal

The encounter between Jesus and the leper underscores the dynamic nature of faith as an active, living force that challenges us to place our trust in God's will, even amidst life's uncertainties and trials. It serves as a poignant reminder that our faith, when genuinely embraced, becomes a wellspring of strength and transformation, capable of guiding us toward a path of healing, restoration, and, ultimately, wholeness. As we navigate the complexities of our own lives, this story invites us to lean into our faith, trusting in God's timing and providence, and embrace the potential for healing and renewal in our journey. Reflect on a time when your faith played a key role in overcoming a personal challenge. How did it transform the situation?
