GATHERING

Our God Is Here

Chris Muglia

Here in this time, here in this place,
 here we are standing face to face.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives,
 our God is here.
 Here for the broken, here for the strong,
 here in this temple we belong.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives,
 our God is here.
And we cry...

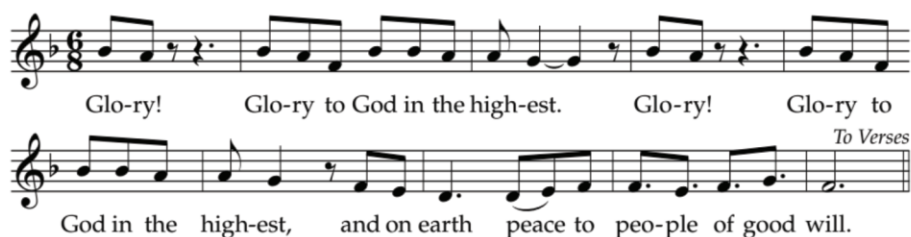

Here in the word, God is revealed,
 here where the wounded can be healed.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives,
 our God is here.
 Here we become what we receive,
 here in this Eucharistic feast.
 We are his body, living as one;
 our God is here.
And we cry...

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 138: In the Sight of the Angels

Kathleen MacAller

I will give you thanks, O Lord, with all my heart,
 for you have heard the words of my mouth;
 in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
 I will worship at your holy temple.

I will give thanks to your name
 because of your kindness and truth.
 When I called, you answered me;
 You built your strength within me.

The Lord is exalted, yet the lowly he sees.
 The proud he knows from afar.
 Though I walk in distress, you preserve me;
 Against my enemies' anger, you raise your hand.

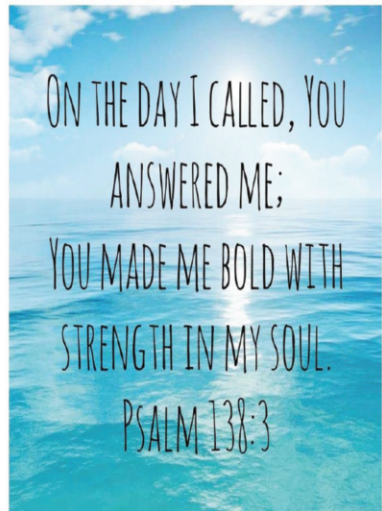

Your right hand saves me.
 The Lord will complete what he has done for me;
 Your kindness, O Lord, endures forever forsake not the work of your hands.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

Pass it on!

Dear Friends,

In our second reading today, St. Paul, still addressing the community at Corinth (we've been hearing excerpts from his letter to them for a few weeks now), writes of handing on to them what he also received, that is, the Good News: "that Christ died for our sins ... that he was buried; that he was raised on the last day ..." After detailing many who actually saw the Risen One, he says that he too saw him, last of all, because as one who persecuted the church he is "the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle". He goes on to credit God's grace for who and what he (Paul) is, for the effectiveness of his ministry, and for the toil he has put in to preach the Gospel.

His frank humility brings to mind the prophet Isaiah in the first reading. After seeing a vision of the Lord on his high and lofty throne with angels "stationed above" crying out "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" Isaiah believes he is doomed for being a sinner who has seen the Lord God. But one of the seraphim touches his lips with a burning coal from the altar and says "your wickedness is removed, your sin is purged." He then answers the call of God "Here I am, send me!" Angels are God's servants of course and are therefore agents of grace for the prophet Isaiah and for St. Paul.

Then, in the gospel, after Jesus fills the nets of fishermen who labored all night with no catch, Simon Peter recognizes that this is miraculous, and like Isaiah says "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." But Jesus tells him not to be afraid because from now on he (and the other apostles) would be catching people – again, by the grace of God.

Isaiah with his unclean lips. Paul who sought out and killed Christians. Simon Peter, a simple fisherman. All of them recipients of God's grace, but always with a task of bringing the message of salvation to their people, to God's people.

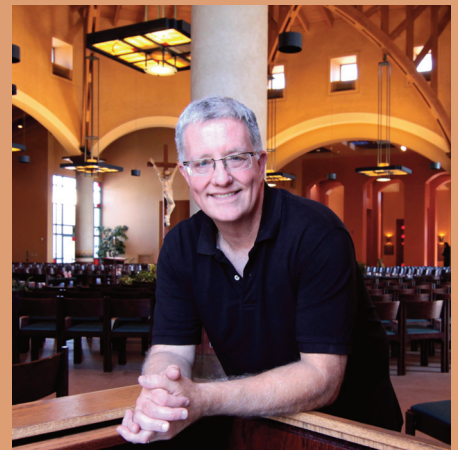

Is it any different with us? I think not. We are to "hand on what we also received" by the grace of God, the Good News of Jesus Christ. Here's one way of putting it: "Your Creator loves you. Your life has meaning, and you're going to live forever. If you can find a better deal, take it!"

Our world is aching for the Gospel just as Isaiah's and Paul's and Simon Peter's world was. Can we trust in God's grace, freely given, but always with a purpose?

Siempre adelante,

Dominic MacAller

Becoming Catholic

The Catholic Way of Life

Catholicism is not merely a set of doctrines to which we give assent. It is a way of life rooted in a love relationship with Jesus and with each other. So one does not become a Catholic simply by attending classes. Seekers “catch being Catholic” by entering into the life of the parish: attending Mass, participating in parish activities, building relationships, and serving others. This is a gradual process and the time it takes varies with the particular background and circumstances of each seeker. It is a faith journey that all of us share as we encourage one another along the way. The purpose of the Tuesday evening meetings is to assist the seekers as they strive to enter fully into the Catholic way of life. For more information contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Luke 5:1-11 ~ We are continually invited to follow Jesus.

Today’s gospel story presents Luke’s account of the call of the first disciples. In contrast to Matthew and Mark’s stories, the disciples had a more resounding reason to respond to the call from Jesus. Following Jesus can mean leaving some things behind. What do you need to let go of to follow Jesus more fully in your life?
