GATHERING

Our God Is Here

Chris Muglia

Here in this time, here in this place,
 here we are standing face to face.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives,
 our God is here.
 Here for the broken, here for the strong,
 here in this temple we belong.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives,
 our God is here.
And we cry...

Here in the word, God is revealed,
 here where the wounded can be healed.
 Here in our hearts, here in our lives,
 our God is here.
 Here we become what we receive,
 here in this Eucharistic feast.
 We are his body, living as one;
 our God is here.
And we cry...

Refrain

And we cry: "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly are you!" We cry:
 "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly and true!" A - men, we do be-lieve our God is here. Our God is here.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 92: It Is Good to Give Thanks to You

Christopher Walker

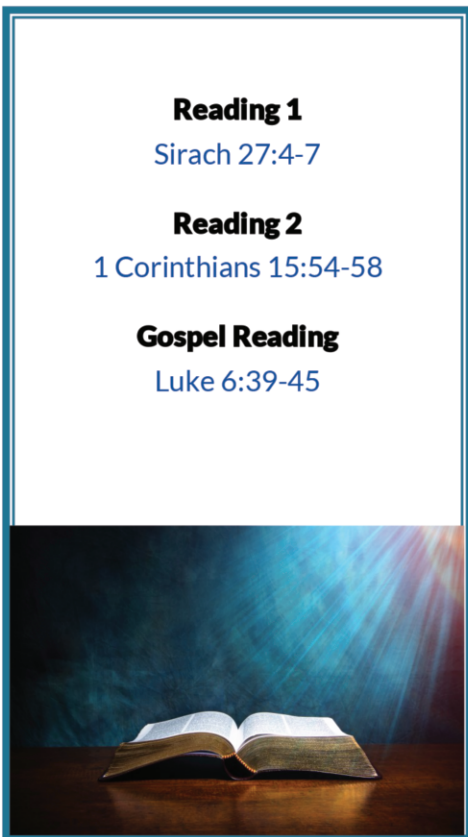

It is good to give thanks to you, to give thanks to you, our God. It is good. It is good.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
 to make music to your name, O Most High,
 to proclaim your love in the morning light,
 and your truth in the watches of the night.

And the just like the palm tree will grow,
 they will flourish like a Labanon cedar,
 and planted deep in the house of God,
 they will thrive in the temple of our God.

They bear fruit even when they are old;
 in old age they will stay fresh and green to proclaim to all that our God is just.
 In our Rock no injustice can be found.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS*Blessed Are the Poor (Rejoice, Be Glad)

Adam M. L. Tice &amp; Kate Williams

1. Blessed are the poor — the people who live in God's holy reign.
Blessed are the sad, for comfort is yours through sorrow and pain.
Blessed are the meek for you will inherit what long was denied.
Hungry, thirsty ones, your longing for justice will be satisfied.
2. Blessed are the kind — the merciful ones shall mercy receive.
Blessed are the good your heart shall see God because you believe.
Blessed children, come: grow peace for a planet still choking with hate.
Persecuted ones, for you all the blessings of heaven await.
3. You are salt and light — let earth taste and see God's glory revealed.
Let your goodness shine; the lost are restored, the broken are healed.
All will be fulfilled — the law and the prophets have shown us the way.
Heaven comes to earth; rejoice and be glad for creation's new day.

Refrain

Re - joice, be glad, for heav-en is com-ing. Re - joice, be glad, for heav-en is com-ing. Re -

Blooming (and bearing fruit)

I have a new tree in my backyard. It has multiple fruits grafted onto it, including plums, apricots, peaches and one other stone fruit that I have forgotten, perhaps nectarines, all selected for their ability to self-pollinate and grow in our warmer climate. We'll see if this works. I was told that if the major trunk comes to dominate on the tree, the other varieties will die off, so I have to prune it carefully. After it was planted, it was clear that two of the varieties had begun to dominate in growth already. I have no idea, which ones yet, as the tree came without leaf or fruit on it. So, I read everything I could find on the internet on pruning this tree correctly, and watched YouTube videos on the subject, both done in Australia, curiously. With trepidation, I took pruners in hand and did my best to restore some balance, and prepare the tree for spring growth. I admit that I am fearful that I cut off too much.

Within just the last couple of days of my writing this, though, the first white blossoms have opened on some of the branches. I'm getting hopeful that there might be fruit in my future. Again, we'll see, but it's hopeful.

And that is the point of my story. You do your best, and then you hope.

You try, and try hard, and then you hope.

You fail, even, and you pick yourself back up, and you continue to hope.

You've all made the best health choices you could in these last two difficult years. We've all had our hopes disappointed with ongoing waves and total and partial shutdowns. And yet there are signs, early and yet still hopeful signs, with falling infections rates, easier symptoms, fewer hospitalizations, etc. Perhaps this time things will work out.

Might there be reason to hope?

Even if we were to recycle right back into a new wave of infections, perhaps pi, or rho, or sigma? Both Delta and Omicron were surprises. It could happen, dear Lord forfend! What would we do? We'd hope for the future, and carry on.

On the other hand, this could be the beginning of something better, even if not entirely as things were before, but much more open and less constrained. Truth to tell, none of us know. But we have dealt with hard times, and we have endured. We have had losses, real and painful, but we have survived. In essence, like my fruit tree, we've been pruned. There could be hard times ahead, but we are hardened. We aren't weak. We can do this. We can hope.

I encourage you, in light of today's Gospel, that we need to bear fruit under both good and bad circumstances. Whatever happens, please do not become disheartened. Be a person of faith and hope. As 1 Peter 1:6-7 says, "In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ."

Becoming Catholic

Dismissal of the Catechumens

Every Sunday at the 9:00 am Mass a group of children, teens, and adults are called forward to the priest's chair after the homily. These are our catechumens, those preparing for Baptism. They are sent forth from the assembly, following the Book of the Gospels, to meeting rooms (one for the adults, another for the children) to reflect more deeply on the scripture readings they have just heard. They discuss the relevance of the readings, especially the Gospel, to their own lives and the challenges they present. It is an encounter with Jesus through which the catechumens strengthen their resolve to live as his disciples. Please pray for our 6 catechumens as they prepare for the Sacraments. If you would like to know more about the process of becoming Catholic, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6427 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org. ## Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Lk 6:39-45 ~ Our words reveal what is in our hearts.

Jesus says that our words reveal what is in our hearts. How do your words and actions reveal what is truly in your heart? We, humans, are vulnerable to sin. But we see the sins of others more easily than we recognize our own sins. Why does Jesus warn us not to judge others?

Giving

Together in Mission ~ As One We Believe

We pray together,
sing together,
volunteer together,
and believe together.
Christ sends us on a mission to evangelize

Safeguard the Children

How to Help Children Cope with School Shootings in the News

School shootings are in the news often, and children can understandably develop major fears about them. Keep up with what your children are talking about — if they seem to be focused on school shootings, it can be helpful to talk about these types of violence in a balanced context. For more ideas about how to discuss this with your children, read the VIRTUS article at lacatholics.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/01/DYK.Feb.\_-12-13.Helping-Young-People-Cope.pdf

Begins Wednesday, March 2
Sign up today

Enhance the holy season of Lent with daily inspirations delivered to your mailbox.

Lent should be more than a time of fasting; it should be a joyous time of feasting. Lent is a time to fast from certain things and, by doing so, allows us to feast on others.

Ending Hunger
One Step at a Time

CROP Walk

Sunday, March 13

Two Options to Walk

Virtual:

Walk or jog anywhere,
any day or time in March

In-Person 5.5K Walk:

Sunday, March 13, 12:30 pm
Mt. Cross Lutheran Church

Hungry people in developing countries typically walk as many as six miles a day to get food, water, and fuel and take their goods to market. We walk to be in solidarity with their struggle for existence. Together we raise awareness and funds.

Register/Donate:

February 20 and 27 in the courtyard or visit
