GATHERING

Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord. Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord. One bread, one bod-y, one spir-it of love. Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord.

Draw us forth to the table of life:
 brothers and sisters,
 each of us called to walk in your light.

We are parts of the body of Christ, needing each other,
 each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

No more harm on the mountain of God;
 swords into plowshares.
 Free us, O Lord, from hardness of heart.

Wash us, Lord, in the waters of life;
 waters of mercy,
 waters of hope that flow from your side.

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est. Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 19: Your Words, Lord, Are Spirit and Life

Bob Hurd

Your words, Lord, are Spir-it, Spir-it and life.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul.
 The decree of the Lord s trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
 the command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye.
3. The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever;
 the statutes of the Lord are true, all of them just.
4. They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold;
 sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb.
5. Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Call us to be your compassion,
Teach us the song of your love;
Give us hearts that sing,
give us deeds that ring,
Make us ring with the song of your love.

Call us to learn of your mercy,
Teach us the way of your peace;
Give us hearts that feel,
give us hands that heal,
Make us walk in the way of your peace.

Call us to answer oppression,
Teach us the fire of your truth;
Give us righteous souls,
'Til your justice rolls,
Make us burn in the fire of your truth.

Be a Bearer of Glad Tidings

Dear friends on the journey,

As I write this in mid-January in ordinary time, I still have a bit of the post-Christmas “blues” that come after the sights, sounds, and smells of the magical holiday have been tucked away for another year. I miss the rainy cold weather that has given way to slightly warmer, windier days. I long for the feel-good stories of generosity and gift giving to strangers. Christmas brings out the collective goodness of humanity, when we care a little more for others, when we offer more kindness, and attend to the needs of the poor, hungry, and vulnerable. Various memes encouraging us to keep Christmas going by feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, caring for the ill, welcoming the stranger, extending forgiveness ... essentially the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

I was drawn to the words in today’s gospel “bring glad tidings to the poor.” During my reflection, I kept thinking of the Christmas carols singing about “tidings.” The Ignatius Catholic Study Bible offers this translation, “preach the good news to the poor.” This is what the Incarnation is about ... God coming among us in the person of Jesus to bring tidings, the good news, to the poor, which is really all of us. At some time in our lives, we have or will experience poverty whether it be financial, material, health, intellectual, emotional, or spiritual. It’s inevitable. But part of Jesus’ good news is that God is with us through it, that God walks with us, providing comfort, strength, and hope that poverty and darkness will become abundance and light.

Being in this weird place of still holding onto Christmas and looking forward in ordinary time, those simple memes are our reminder to live the spirit of Christmas through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. How might you continue the spirit of Christmas, not just today but all year? How might you extend a work of mercy to another? How might you be Jesus for someone in poverty?

Here at Padre Serra, we have an opportunity to do just that. Our new Racial Justice Ministry has partnered with Friends of Fieldworkers, a local organization whose mission is to “befriend, celebrate and support families of fieldworkers in Ventura County” for a special project.

While our winters are mild, we cannot escape the cooler temperatures, especially at night. But you can provide warmth and comfort for our local farm workers and their families by donating a new blanket or sleeping bag next weekend. Simply drop it in one of the collection boxes before or after Mass next weekend or in the parish office by February 4.

I invite you to participate in this project of mercy but continue to look for other ways of being a bearer of glad tidings this new year.

Siempre Adelante,

Teresa Runyon
Faith Life Minister

Becoming Catholic

Various Paths to Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always takes into account the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic, but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's faith. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Contact Catherine Shaddock (805) 482-6417 x331, catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21 ~ Jesus is the fulfillment of the Scriptures.

Today’s passage highlights compassion and liberation as the theme of Jesus’ ministry and concern for the weakest members of society the mark of his identity as Messiah. Jesus came to bring glad tidings to the poor and set free the enslaved. How has this mission of Christ in the world affected you personally?
