Youth Strings Ensemble

Padre Serra is exploring the possibility of creating a youth string ensemble. Please fill out the form below if your family has an interested string player - violin and viola especially needed, cello and bass welcome also.

We're looking for players of at least intermediate level (minimum two years experience); depending on responses and abilities, the ensemble could be invited to play at mass!

To apply, visit www.padreserra.org/instrumentalists

Hospitality Ministers Needed

Love your neighbor as yourself - Matthew 22:39

Ushers welcome us as we arrive to worship, help us find our way around the worship space and into comfortable seats, facilitate our processions (especially at Communion), and hand out worship aids and bulletins. They also help us be responsible stewards by taking up the collection at the liturgy.

We need people willing to serve at all Masses. To volunteer for this ministry of service, please contact Paul Collier (805) 233-2810, paul@padreserra.org or Jim Nichols (805) 657-4291, jim@padreserra.org

Come and Follow Me

Francis Patrick O'Brien

 If you plan to fol - low where I lead,
 Take up your cross and de-ny your ver - y selves. Then Last time only come and fol - low me. Come and fol - low me.

1. God has anointed me that I may hear
The cries of all who are oppressed.
I know their doubt and fear. I know their pain.
Who will release them, give them rest?
2. My life is emptied out for those made low.
I bear their burden and their strife.
I win them victory upon a tree.
Who will give comfort, bring them life?
3. The one who saves my life will raise me high.
God is my help, God is my shield.
Called forth from death to life, you too shall rise.
In you the cross will be revealed.
4. If you would save your life, lose it in me.
Take up my cross, take up my name.
Release the burdened ones, set captives free.
Be faithful till I come again,

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 19: Your Words, Lord, Are Spirit and Life

Bob Hurd

Refrain
 Your words, Lord, are Spir-it, Spir - it and life. life.

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul.
The decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the command of the Lord is clear, enlight'ning the eye.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever;
the statutes of the Lord are true, all of them just.

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb.

Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Bread for the World

Bernadette Farrell

Refrain: All

Bread for the world: a world of hun - ger. Wine for all peo - ples: peo - ple who thirst. May we who eat be bread for oth - ers. May we who drink pour out our love.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life,
broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
Where we divide your people you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps.
Where we are tired and weary, you are waiting there to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.

Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and pow'rful have become the least.
Where we survive on others in our human greed,
you walk among us begging for your ev'ry need.

Filled with gifts and filled with goodness, Sprit breathing life into
 All who seek to find their purpose:
 We belong to you.

When we share the bread you've broken
 With the many and the few,
 We are blessed and we are broken;
 We belong to you.

We are called to share your word, Lord,
 In all we say and all we do.
 As our journey moves us onward,
 We belong to you.

SENDING FORTH

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

- There's a wideness in God's mercy
 Like the wideness of the sea;
 There's a kindness in God's justice
 Which is more than liberty.
 There is plentiful redemption
 In the blood that has been shed;
 There is joy for all the members
 In the sorrows of the Head.
- There is welcome for the sinner,
 And a promised grace made good;
 There is mercy with the Savior;
 There is healing in Christ's blood.
 There is grace enough for thousands
 Of new worlds as great as this;
 There is room for fresh creations
 In that upper home of bliss.
- For the love of God is broader
 Than the measure of the mind;
 And the heart of the Eternal
 Is most wonderfully kind.
 If our love were but more simple,
 We would know the living Word;
 And our lives would be thanksgiving
 In the kindness of the Lord.

So be mer - ci-ful, just as our God is mer - ci-ful. Be mer - ci-ful, just as our God is mer - ci-ful to us. Let there be a wide-ness in our mer- cy. Let there be a kind - ness in our hearts.
 Oh, may our lives be mer - ci - ful.

Who Am I?

Dear friends on the journey,

While scripture was written for a particular time, people and culture, it is no less relevant to us today in our own unique culture and situations. Understanding its original context can clear the field so we can get to the heart of the message and ask the question: What is God trying to tell me in this passage? For the message to have an impact requires meditation and action. So how can we do this?

Ignatian spirituality offers a way for the Holy Spirit to, as Fr. Kevin O'Brien says, "make present a mystery of Jesus' life in a way that is meaningful for you now." The spiritual practice of imaginative prayer guides us to immerse ourselves in a gospel story, engaging our senses and imagination so we can identify with the people and connect our own circumstances to theirs.

Today's gospel of the Good Samaritan is a perfect passage to meditate on using imaginative prayer. The story contains the great commandment, a difficult situation, many characters and timeless messages for us. I invite you to take some time this week to use this spiritual practice, allowing the Holy Spirit to guide you to what God is saying just to you right now. I'd like to focus on the characters in the story and offer these questions as guides. Imagine you are the:

Jewish Lawyer: Am I more concerned with the law rather than humanity? Am I more devoted to the letter than the spirit, for instance immigrants seeking a safer life? Do I view situations only in black and white? Can I acknowledge the gray and look at it from another perspective?

Victim: When have I experienced suffering, trauma, or pain – physical, emotional, mentally, sexual, or otherwise? Did I ask for help? Who did help me in those moments? Have I expressed my gratitude to them? How am I better because of another's kindness?

Priest/Levite: Am I too busy for others? Am I better than others because of my race, ethnicity, neighborhood, economic status? Am I afraid to get involved in a difficult situation, like a car accident, even though it will delay or cost me? Is it possible to move out of my comfort zone to help another?

Samaritan: How has my own experience of suffering shifted my view of others? Am I more empathetic because I know what it's like to be invisible, misunderstood, or judged? Am I able to see another's situation without judgment and help even though I may not agree with them?

Innkeeper: Have I ever been "dumped" on? How did I respond when a task or situation, like having to care for a sick relative, was thrust upon me without warning or permission? Did I roll up my sleeves or resist it?

Jesus: When I am in a difficult situation, do I recall a similar situation in scripture and consider his teachings or what he would do in my situation, and did it?

Lastly, ask yourself: who am I right now in this gospel meditation? Am I finding affirmation or discomfort, or both? How can I change for the better? What is God trying to tell me today?
