Happy Retirement!

If you have ever called the parish office, baptized a baby, planned a funeral, or inquired about Confirmation or becoming Catholic, most likely you talked with two pillars of our staff and community retiring on June 30; Jane and Catherine. We wish them a joyful and peaceful retirement and invite you to stop by the office to do as well.

Jane Riggio

My involvement in Padre Serra Parish's office life began when founding pastor Fr. Liam Kidney invited me to volunteer in the office on Avenida Acasa; a new database was being set up for the 800+ families who would be part of this new parish. I was part of a small team who facilitated this task, which took a bit of patience since this first program was not easy to navigate, and we only had one computer to share.

In 1992, Sue Spies hired me to work alongside two wonderful, creative, and dynamic women: Eileen Richards, who developed our Confirmation program, and Kathie Wilson, who ran the Jr. High program. I was their support at events and with administrative tasks. It truly was a fun and exciting time chasing the coattails of both these exceptional women.

When we moved up to the newly finished offices at 5205 Upland Road in 1995, Sue asked if I would be the faith formation secretary. I was honored to take it. Plus, everyone knows there is no way to say no to Sue! In 2005, Dominic MacAller kindly asked me to switch hats to support the liturgy department. I said yes, but was extremely nervous since I knew absolutely nothing about the role; with his guidance, I came to love being a small part of this area.

Within the next few years, the liturgy and receptionist duties were joined as one job, and that is where I've been ever since, right here in the reception office.

It has truly been a blessing for me to work at Padre Serra these past 28-plus years, where I have always felt valued, supported, and appreciated by everyone in the office and our parishioners. It is with many mixed emotions that I leave this wonderful work-home.

Catherine Shaddock

In 1993, Catherine, a former high school teacher, moved with her family to Camarillo from Los Angeles, where she had served as lector coordinator, children's catechist, and RCIA team member.

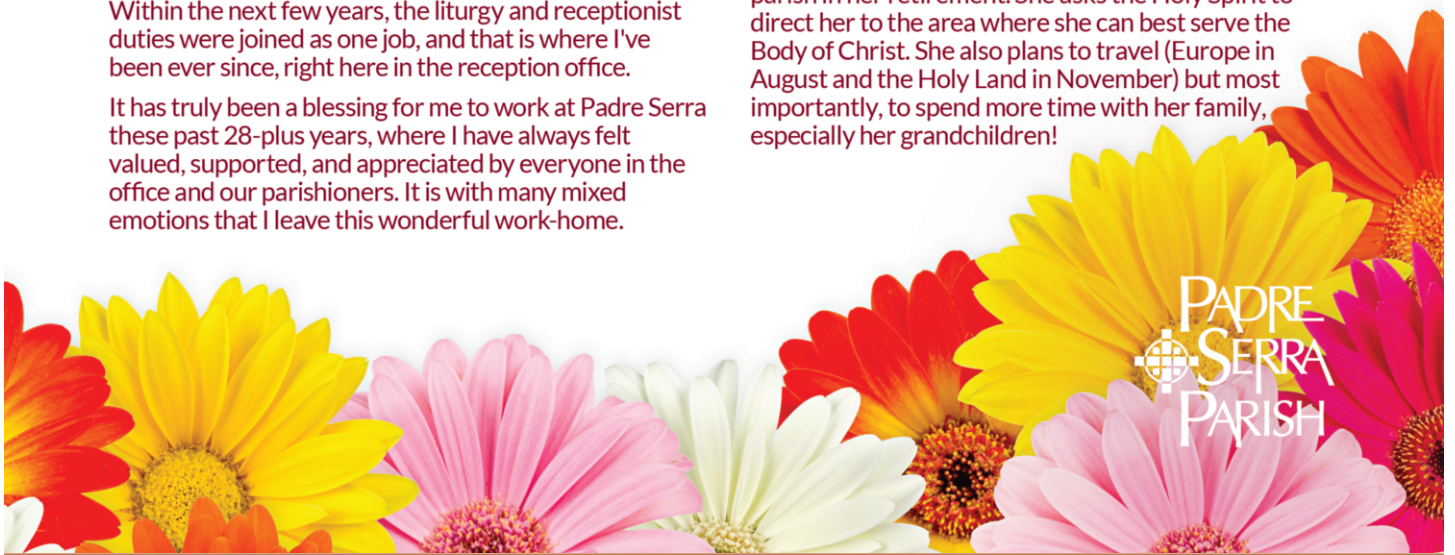

She soon began volunteering at Padre Serra Parish as a children's catechist. In 1998, she was asked to join the parish staff as First Communion Coordinator and develop a Children's Initiation process (RCIA adapted for children).

In 2004 she became the Director of Religious Education for two years until she left the staff to care for her aging parents. During this hiatus, she continued to volunteer as a catechist for the adult RCIA process and the Adult Confirmation program.

In 2010 she rejoined the parish staff as Coordinator of Initiation and has been serving in this role ever since. In this capacity, she directs the processes through which school-age children, teens, and adults are baptized, adults become Catholic, and Catholic adults receive Confirmation. This work has given her much happiness and fulfillment as well as the opportunity to know many wonderful people.

Catherine still plans to be actively involved in the parish in her retirement. She asks the Holy Spirit to direct her to the area where she can best serve the Body of Christ. She also plans to travel (Europe in August and the Holy Land in November) but most importantly, to spend more time with her family, especially her grandchildren!

GATHERING

Gather Your People

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34: Taste and See

Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, the good-ness of the Lord.

Text: Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7; Marty Haugen, © 1980, GIA Publications, Inc.; refrain trans., © 1969, ICEL

Reading 1
 Genesis 14:18-20

Reading 2
 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Gospel Reading
 Luke 9:11b-17

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Marty Haugen, Gather #45

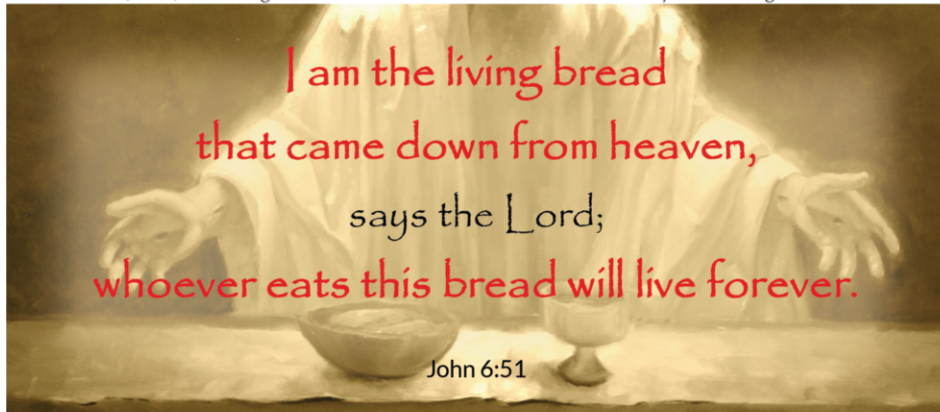

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
 God's praise ever in my mouth.
 Glory in the Lord forever,
 and the lowly will hear and be glad.
2. Glory in the Lord with me,
 let us together extol God's name.
 I sought the Lord, who answered me
 and delivered me from all my fears.
3. Look to God that you might be radiant with joy,
 and your faces free from all shame.
 The Lord hears the suffering souls,
 and saves them from all distress.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the
 living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

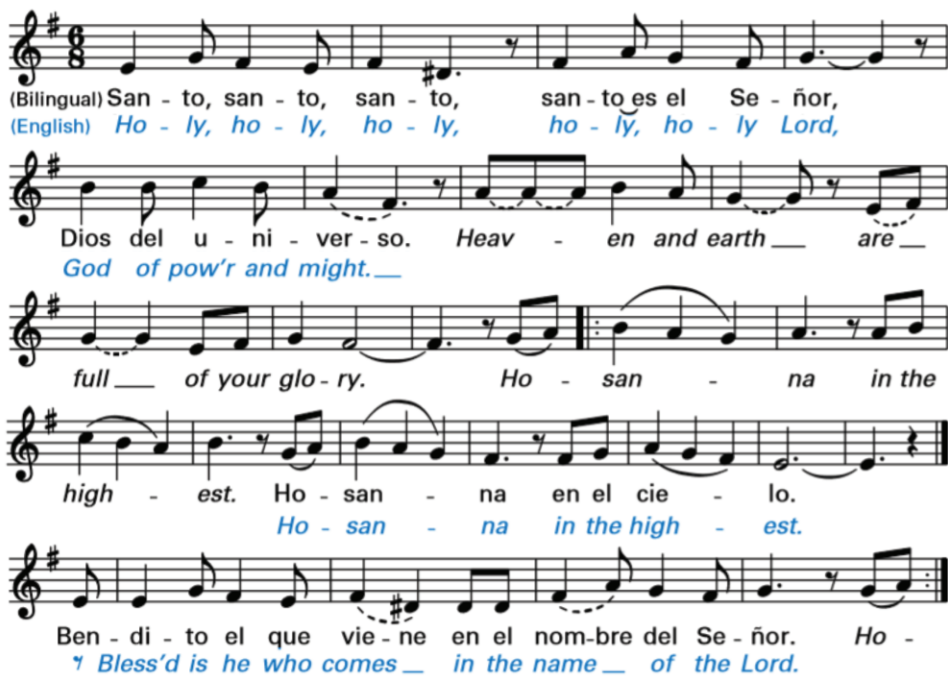

Amen.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at
your hands,
for the praise and glory of
His Name,
for our good
and the good of all
His holy Church.

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

I have the suspicion that we aren't nearly hungry enough to truly appreciate what Jesus is doing for us. Things have changed so very much for us since his day.

In 2020, the USDA calculated that we spent 8.6% of our income, on average, for food. Consider that in 1900, just 120 years earlier, we spent 43% of our income on food. It was harder to produce, even though half of the country worked in agriculture, because mechanization of farms hadn't happened yet. A horse and a plow to sow, a team of horses and a combine to harvest, home production and yet other horses and wagons to move to market just couldn't compete for efficiency with our tractors, combines, food factories and trucks. Food preservation also was expensive. Many of our modern methods of lengthening the shelf life, and safeguarding from bacteria and spoilage hadn't been discovered. Pickling, smoking, drying and salting, all available at the time, were labor intensive and required expensive ingredients.

For most of human history, life was hard and food was expensive. People were shorter, much thinner and vulnerable to sickness, and lived shorter lives. We duly credit advances in the medical field for our longer lifespans now. Many medical anthropologists, though, recognize that the greatest positive advance in lifespans was due to readily available and affordable calories.

Yes, the very bane of our modern waistlines, ready access to delectable, sweet or salty, crunchy or creamy calories, relates to our expanded lifespans. For the overwhelming majority of us there simply is no need to be hungry. We are far less likely to starve because of famine, than dieting. I'm not sure we can appreciate how topsy-turvy this is from earlier ages.

What Jesus did for the crowds in today's Gospel was a stunner for the people involved. It's amazing enough that a crowd that included 5,000 men all had a bite to eat. It's something else, altogether, to say that this hungry, emaciated sickly crowd all "ate and were satisfied."

Our Savior wants to feed us, desires to nourish our spirits with His very Self, given in the form of simple bread, and the celebratory drink of wine. Are we hungry enough to appreciate what He wants to do? And that is before we get to the utter sacredness of God's outreach to us in this manner. Not only is Holy Communion nourishment. It's God.

But it all seems too easy, doesn't it, and perhaps too often? If we spend a great deal in the presence of anything "special," it can begin to lose its luster. I can remember a scuba trip I went on, where lobster was the main course, I kid you not, every dinner for a week. By day four, I wanted nothing so much as a chicken breast. And here we are, on a daily basis if we want it, able to receive the Creator of the Cosmos.

Frankly, we have to work on keeping the Eucharist in the place it needs to be in our lives. We have the obligation to be alert to the intention and aware of the Eternal Consciousness that accompanies Communion. We have this day every year precisely to remind us of the infinite value of what Jesus offers us.

Let's be attentive!

Siempre adelante,

Fr. Patrick

Becoming Catholic

Catholic Inquiry Summer Schedule

Summer, with its slower pace, is a good time to begin inquiring about the Catholic Faith. Inquiry continues to meet throughout the summer, but only twice a month. We will watch a series of DVDs on various Catholic themes followed by questions and discussion in a relaxed atmosphere. Come join us! For information on our summer schedule or about the process of becoming Catholic, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Giving

Eucharistic Ministers Needed

St. John's Pleasant Valley Hospital is in need of Eucharistic Ministers. The commitment would be 1 - 2 Wednesdays per month. Begins with Mass in the chapel and then bringing Holy Communion to Catholic patients. Orientation and training provided. Questions: Liz Leung eksleung@aol.com

St. John's Seminary

We continue our focus on St. John's Seminary, our next-door neighbor, and the seminary for our Archdiocese, as we support its mission to prepare men for the priesthood. This year, St. John's has 52 seminarians. Along with their studies at St. John's, men spend an internship year at a parish, working under a pastor mentor. With the grace of God, nine seminarians will be ordained as new priests this summer for our Archdiocese. As these deacons enter their final months of prayer and preparation, please keep them in your prayers.

Stewardship Means Sharing

Give God the first serving, the first portion of our gifts. Giving is not based on the church's need for money, but on our need to give back to God as a way to say 'thank you.'

Other Notes

In the Community

Greek Festival ~ June 24 - 26

Our sisters and brothers of St. Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church invite you to their annual festival at Freedom Park to enjoy all things Greek ... live music, dancing, wine tasting, and delicious homemade food, treats, and pastries plus a kids zone and a new after-hours experience. Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Luke 9:11b-17 ~ Jesus always provides

Today's gospel is Luke's version of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. Jesus does not provide a feast but rather attends to everyone's basic need of food, and not alone but with the disciples. This might suggest that we are also called to provide for others, not only for the Eucharistic but for their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs. In your home, community, workplace, school, and ministry, how are you living out this act of discipleship?
