GATHERING

Mercy, O God

Francis Patrick O'Brien, Gather #480

Refrain

Mer-cy, O God, have mer-cy on us.
 Send down your mer-cy to set us free.
 Mer-cy, O God, have mer-cy on us.
 Send down your mer-cy to set us free.

Gather the people, the children, the elders;
 come now and gather before the Lord.
 Open your hearts to compassion and mercy;
 Open your hearts to the Lord.

Now is the hour, the day of salvation;
 now is the time to return to God.
 Open your lives to forgiveness and mercy;
 Open your lives to the Lord.

Long is the journey and steep are the mountains,
 come now and guide us, O gracious God.
 Show us your face, give us hope for the journey;
 Lead us to walk in your love.

Psalm 91: Be With Me

Marty Haugen, Gather #65

Be with me, Lord, when I am in trou-ble, be with me, Lord, I pray.

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, Most High,
 who abide in the shadow of our God,
 say to the Lord: "My refuge and fortress, the God is whom I trust."

No evil shall befall you, no pain come near,
 for the angels stand close by your side,
 guarding you always and bearing you gently, watching over your life.

Those who cling to the Lord live secure in God's love, lifted high, those who trust in God's name,
 call on the Lord, who will never forsake you.
 God will bring you salvation and joy.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

*May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands,
 for the praise and glory of His Name, for our good
 and the good of all His holy Church.*

COMMUNION SONGS*There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
2. There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.
3. For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.

So be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is mer - ci - ful. Be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is mer - ci - ful to us. Let there be a wide - ness in our mer - - cy. Let there be a kind - ness in our hearts.
Oh, may our lives be mer - ci - ful.

Baptism...What's Lent Got to Do with It?

My Dear Parish Family,

Welcome to Lent! You may have already decided what you are doing for the next 40 days in the way of prayer, self-denial, and charitable works (the three “pillars” of Lent) to prepare for the great feast of Easter. Some of us are still deciding, but I am going to suggest that whatever we do for Lent, we put it all into the context of baptismal spirituality. Let me explain by way of a little historical background.

In the early centuries of the Church, becoming a Christian was a gradual process of apprenticeship in a counter-cultural way of life. The season we now call Lent was the final and intense period when the seekers were prepared to be immersed into the waters of baptism at the Easter Vigil. When infant baptism became the norm by the fifth century, Lent became only a penitential time for the baptized to prepare for the celebration of Easter. The pre-baptismal character of Lent was forgotten until it was revived by the Second Vatican Council in the twentieth century.

Today Lent has two strands, baptismal and penitential, woven together. It is again a time when we journey with the Elect (see “Becoming Catholic” on page 9) to the baptismal font at the Easter Vigil. As we encourage and pray for them during Lent, we reflect on the meaning of our own baptism when we ourselves “put on Christ.” Our Lenten penitential practices can help us to examine our lives in the context of baptismal mission: are we living as disciples of Jesus, being His heart and hands in the world today? For 40 days we ponder this, through our Lenten practices, so we can authentically renew our own baptismal promises at Easter.

I'd like to suggest that you and your families do something at the beginning of Lent that I did recently with the adult Confirmation candidates. Single people could do this with a small group of friends. Gather mementos of each person's baptism: the certificate, candle, white garment, photos, and stories remembered by those who attended. Share all these memories with the group. What should emerge, as it did with our Confirmation candidates, is a sense of the importance placed on this day by our families. Hopefully this will lead to a discussion of the meaning of baptism and the difference it makes in our lives and in the life of the world.

May Lent 2022 be fruitful for all of us, marked by an increased awareness and understanding of the great gift of baptism.

Lenten Blessings,

Catherine

Becoming Catholic

Rites of Sending and Election

Our parish is currently blessed to have 6 catechumens: those adults, teens, and school-age children seeking to be initiated into the Catholic Church. Today at the 9:00 am Mass the parish will officially send them to Sacred Heart Parish in Ventura for the Rite of Election with Bishop Barron. During this vital rite, the bishop will officially declare that the Church has chosen them, along with the many other catechumens in our region, to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil on April 16. They will then be called The Elect and enter into their final, intense phase of preparation for initiation. Please pray for our Elect throughout Lent as they prepare for baptism and as we prepare to renew our own baptismal promises at Easter. For more information about the process of becoming Catholic, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Luke 4:1-13 ~ Lent is time to open our hearts more fully to Jesus. In today’s gospel, the Spirit drove Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil. Just as God led Israel out of Egypt, nourished them for forty years in the desert, and gave them the Promised Land, so God would care for Jesus during and after his forty days in the desert. As you come to understand the temptation of Jesus in the desert, which one of the devil’s offerings is hardest for you to resist? What is one thing you will do during Lent to become more open to God in your life?
