Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est. Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALMPsalm 145: I Will Praise Your Name Forever

Dominic MacAller

I will praise your name for - ev - er, my king and my God, my king and my God.

I will extol you, my God and King, bless your name forever and ever. I will bless you every day and praise your name forever and ever.

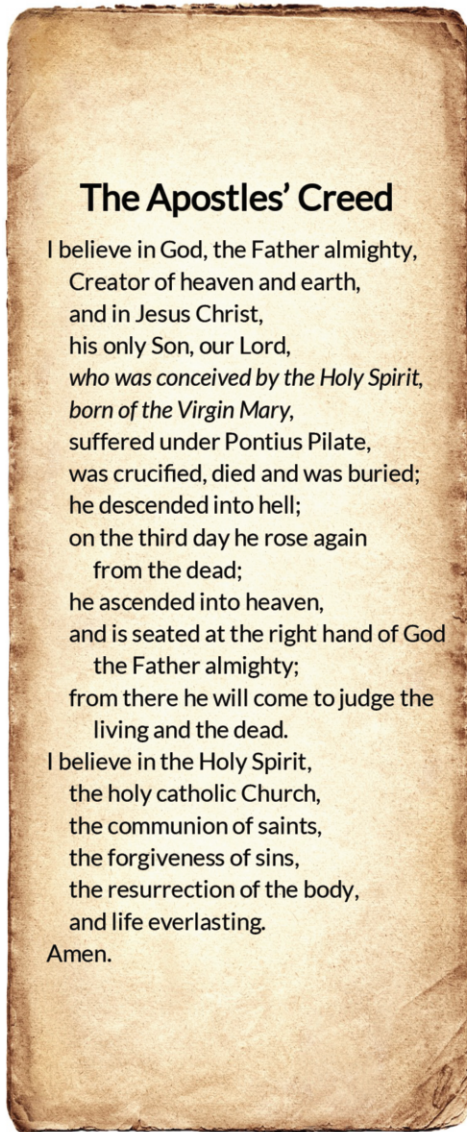

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and full of kindness. The Lord is good to all, and compassionate to all his works.

Let all your works give thanks, O Lord, and let your faithful one bless you. Let them speak of your might, tell the glory of your kingdom.

The Lord is faithful in all his words, and holy in all his works, lifting up all those who fall, and raising up the ones bowed down.

*I gave you a new commandment,
says the Lord:
love one another as
I have loved you.*

John 13:34

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Love is Divine

Dear Faith Family,

Any decent human being knows that it is important to care for others. We have heard it so many times, that if we were to treat others in a different way, we would feel guilty about it. We are indeed called to love our neighbor. We are made in God's image, therefore, we are made to love.

What does it mean to love, though? While it is in our nature to love, sometimes it is difficult to articulate what it actually means to love. Pope Benedict explained the nature of love when he said, "Love is 'divine,' because it comes from God and unites us to God." To give a further explanation, St. Thomas Aquinas states that love is simply to will the good of another. If we take these two quotes from two brilliant people, we can come to the conclusion that God is love, and we have the ability to love because we are made in God's image.

With all that said, love shows itself in unique ways. I think it is intended to be that way. The idea of loving someone is not a one-size-fits-all situation, but rather, it is through our creativity and nature that we show ways to love.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus gives a new commandment, to love one another. He takes it further and explains that this is how people know that you are disciples. Our parish motto is, "Encounter Jesus, Be Disciples." It's quite a simple statement, but it is important that this must be driven by love. Without love, discipleship is meaningless and self-serving.

I'm not naïve enough to say that loving others is difficult; our Lord even gives a bigger challenge in scripture when he proclaims that we should love our enemies as well as our neighbor. The Apostles themselves were afraid to go convert the masses before the Holy Spirit descended upon them. It's difficult, but the endeavor is vastly important.

If you find yourself in a difficult position where it is difficult to love, remember that through God, our discipleship becomes perfect. When we find ourselves unable to love, let us pray to our God to aid us. It is through Him, and Him alone that we are perfect.

God Bless,

Brett Becker

Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always considers the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about what Catholics believe. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shaddock today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

John 13:31-35 ~ Love one another!

Today's gospel presents the heart of Jesus' message: "Love one another as I have loved you." Before the passage, Judas left to betray Jesus. The glorification of Jesus happens through betrayal, suffering, and death. The world is full of examples of people who don't love others. What are the results of hate that you see in the world? How would the world be different if we followed Jesus' commandment? What will you do this week to deepen the love you have for those around you in life?

Welcome!

Our warmest welcome to our newest registered parishioners! May you find faith, fellowship, love, and peace.

Quarterly Focus

We continue our focus on St. John's Seminary, our next-door neighbor, and the seminary for our Archdiocese, as we support its mission to prepare men for the priesthood. This year, St. John's has 52 seminarians. Along with their studies at St. John's, men spend an internship year at a parish, working under a pastor mentor. With the grace of God, nine seminarians will be ordained as new priests this summer for our Archdiocese. As these deacons enter their final months of prayer and preparation, please keep them in your prayers.

"It is not enough to say we are Christians. We must live the faith not only with words but with our actions." – Pope Francis

Encountering Jesus in The Chosen

Tuesdays, June 2 through June 23
Two times to choose from:
9:00 - 10:30 am or 7:00 - 8:30 pm

Every day and every Mass, we read and hear scripture but do you ever wonder about first-century life for Jesus and the apostles – their daily living, culture, government, religious experience? What would it mean practically to follow Jesus?

You are invited to a summer series in which we will explore four gospel stories through prayer, discussion, and The Chosen, a popular, contemporary dramatization of the life and times of Jesus and the apostles.

Each session is standalone, so come to one, some, or all:

- June 2 - Mark 10:12-16
Jesus loves the children
- June 9 - Luke 5:1-11
The rock upon which it is built
- June 16 - John 2:1-11
The wedding gift
- June 23 - Mark 2:1-12
Indescribable compassion

No charge.
Registration is appreciated:
