John 10:27-30

*I am the good shepherd,

I know my sheep,

John 10:14

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Sarah Hart

R. We are his peo - ple, we are his peo - ple, the sheep of his flock.

his people, the flock he tends.

Called to the ones the world ignores Hungry and thirsty, weak and poor
Let us bear Chris, who heals all pain
And comforts those bowed down by shame.

So, with the cross to lead the way,
Let us go forth in peace today,
And to the ends of earth make known
The saving love our God has shown.

Go in peace. Alleluia!

Mother God

Dear friends on the journey,

From a young age, our life's experiences, circumstances, and relationships with people, culture, community, and church influence our images of God. One place in particular beautifully illustrates images of God. In scripture, we see that God uses created beings and inanimate objects to represent God's self: as creator, lawgiver, judge, architect, protector, fire, tabernacle, temple, king, healer, potter, vine, lord, king, shelter, light, rock, spirit, love, father, and of course, Jesus, God incarnate. In today's gospel, Jesus likens himself as God the shepherd, ever the protector to a flock who knows his voice and follows in trust. The attributes of the shepherd are much like that of another image, perhaps a lesser-known image of God. So on this Mother's Day, I reflect on God as Mother.

Do you know the story of the young child who cannot fall asleep for fear of the dark and all the bumps in the night? Several times, she calls out to her mother for comfort. Each time mom's response is, "Don't be scared; Jesus is always here with you." Finally, the daughter says, "But mommy, right now I need Jesus with skin on!"

Today, we celebrate mothers as God with skin. As I remember my own grandmother Doris and think about my mom with her kids and grandkids, I can see all the Godly images and attributes in each of them, especially their unconditional love, patience, and forgiveness. Mothers are creators, and life givers, selfless and generous. They listen, guide, protect, and shelter. And a mother's voice is known to her children, even in the womb.

Now, as a Nana, I understand how God must feel about us. I feel so much joy just thinking of my two grandsons and granddaughter and, when I am with them, oh, my heart just sings! I would give my life for each one of them. My patience with them and desire to teach them is immeasurable. There is nothing better than simply being in their presence as they nap, read, eat, and play.

They say, "You either are a mother or you had one." So, today, I invite you to reflect on your own mom, grandma, or maternal figure. How have they been your God as mother, God with skin for you? If you are a mother, grandmother or maternal figure, how do you image God for your own flock?

Siempre Adelante,

Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always considers the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about what Catholics believe. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shaddock today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Quarterly Focus

We continue our focus on St. John’s Seminary, our next-door neighbor, and the seminary for our Archdiocese, as we support its mission to prepare men for the priesthood. This year, St. John’s has 52 seminarians. Along with their studies at St. John’s, men spend an internship year at a parish, working under a pastor mentor. With the grace of God, nine seminarians will be ordained as new priests this summer for our Archdiocese. As these deacons enter their final months of prayer and preparation, please keep them in your prayers.
