The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of t' he body,

All That Is Hidden

Bernadette Farrell, Gather #746

If you would follow me, follow where life will lead:
do not look for me among the dead,
for I am hidden in pain, risen in love,
there is no harvest without sowing of grain.

If you would honor me, honor the least of these:
You will not find me dressed in finery.
My Word cries out to be heard: breaks through the world:
my Word is on your lips and lives in your heart.

If you would speak of me, live all your life in me:
my ways are not the ways that you would choose;
my thoughts are far beyond yours as heaven from earth:
if you believe in me my voice will be heard.

If you would rise with me, rise through your destiny:
do not refuse the death which brings you life,
for as the grain in the earth must die for rebirth,
so I have planted your life deep within mine.

All that is hid-den will be made clear. All that is dark now will be re-vealed. What you have heard in the dark pro-claim in the light; what you hear in whis-pers pro-claim from the house - tops.

Go out to the whole world ...

Dear Parish Family,

In today's gospel, we, just like the apostles, are commissioned to "Go out to the whole world and proclaim the gospel to all creatures." His promise is that those who "believe and are baptized will be saved." He then is taken up to heaven and takes his place at the right hand of God.

This great commission given to ALL of us, and the work of the community as a whole, has been very evident in recent weeks. Easter season, what an exciting time of the year! From Easter Vigil, welcoming children and adults into the church, as they were baptized and received the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Most recently, this past Sunday, we welcomed 129 children to the Table of the Lord and received the Eucharist for the first time. Next weekend there will be 84 teens and adults who will be sealed in the Holy Spirit, confirming their Baptism.

If you are like me, these days always bring to mind memories of our own sacraments. I specifically remember my First Communion most clearly. It was one of the best days of my life! I desired so deeply to receive Jesus in the Eucharist, and the experience was so visceral. The level of intimacy with our Lord; I can only describe as hearing his voice so clear and loud in my soul. Being told I am loved, and created for a purpose, to love and bring others to our Lord.

The grace we receive with each of the sacraments strengthens the gifts of the Holy Spirit within us to do as we have been asked. "Go out to the world." We were given a task, but we are not left alone to do it. Our Lord has given us his example to follow, his Spirit to be with us always. And we are fed with his body and blood to strengthen and sustain us.

Whether you are "proclaiming the Gospel" in an official capacity as a catechist or teacher, or as a loving parent, grandparent or friend, it's not always about what we say, but the opportunity to be Christ to others. The sacraments not only unite us intimately with Jesus, but solidify our unity as the body of Christ.

I will leave you with a quote from St. Teresa of Avila, which reminds us, "Christ has no body now on earth but yours; no hands but yours; no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ must look out on the world. Yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which he is to bless his people."

Today, in a special way, let us be grateful for:

Our mothers, and mother figures, who nurtured us and supported us through life.
Our Church who takes on the maternal role of guiding us through life. And our Blessed Mother, who protects both the Church and all her children.
