GATHERING

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name

— Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

And on that day, when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 130: With the Lord There Is Mercy

Marty Haugen

With the Lord there is mer - cy, and full-ness of re - demp-tion.

1. From out of the depths, I cry unto you, Lord, hear my voice, come hear my prayer;
O let your ear be open to my pleading.
2. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, then who could stand within your sight?
But in you is found forgiveness for our failings.
3. Just as those who wait for the morning light, even more I long for the Lord, my God, whose word to me shall ever be my comfort.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the
 dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.

The Lord Is My Light

Lilian Bouknight, Gather #690

The Lord is my light and my salvation,
the Lord is my light and my salvation,
the Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

In the time of trouble, he shall hide me,
O in the time of trouble, he shall hide me,
in the time of trouble, he shall hide me;
whom shall I fear?

Wait on the Lord and be of good courage,
wait on the Lord and be of good courage,
wait on the Lord and be of good courage.
He shall strengthen thine heart.

Summer and Covenant

Dear friends on the journey,

Last week I had the great opportunity to cruise to Alaska. The sun's illumination of the immense beauty of the Pacific Northwest for more than nineteen hours a day reminded me of God's wisdom of the seasons. I'm not certain I can select a favorite season as they each bring their own colors, sights, wonders, and opportunities. Even though I am no longer a student, or a parent of students, and work year round, I still look to summer as a break. I love summer for so many reasons. Longer days and warmer weather allow us to enjoy simple things like dinners on the patio, swimming after a day's work, and watching sunsets at the beach. Summer beckons us outdoors to enjoy concerts in the park, BBQ parties with friends and family, and vacations near and far. Summer offers a slower pace to garden, read, and do long-awaited projects around the house.

I also find summer to be a season of Sabbath, a time to slow, rest, enjoy God's creation and tend to our spiritual life. So, at this midpoint of the year, one way to do that is to revisit the covenantal promises we made in January:

Sabbath I will plan for the full experience of the Mass and be mentally present. I will prepare before, arrive early, journey through the gardens as if on a pilgrimage from my car to the holy ground of the church sanctuary, and be wide open to what will happen at the table.

Gratitude Each night before retiring, I will think of three things from the day for which to be grateful.

Examine In an effort to grow as a child of God, I will review my day and recognize those moments when God was most present, acknowledge my failures, and ask forgiveness.

Prayer I acknowledge that any place can be holy ground (laundry room, car line, red lights ...) and make it a habit to pray when I: pump gas, enter home/work/school, hear a siren, pass any church, cemetery, hospital, or school.

Jesus As I grow in my relationship with Jesus, I will strive to choose faith over fear and encourage others to do the same.

Discipleship I will focus on the difficult teachings of Jesus to forgive over and over again, to love enemies, to pray for those that persecute.

Evangelization I will preach the "Good News" with family and friends by sharing what God has done in my life and by actively inviting them to join me at church.

Love Neighbor Recognizing that everyone is made in God's image and likeness, and that everyone has their own struggles, I will extend the dignity and respect to each person that I would hope to receive.

Charity Over the course of the next year, I will choose a local and international mission to support with my time, talent, and treasure.

Stewardship (support of parish) I will examine my heart, my budget, and my schedule to see how I can support the parish in service.

I invite you over these next weeks and months to focus on the promises you identified. Pray, recommit, and act. I pray that you will rejuvenate your mind, body and spirit in this delightful season of summer.

Siempre Adelante,

Teresa Runyon
Pastoral Associate
