RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 107: Give Thanks to the Lord

Tony Alonso

Give thanks to the Lord, give thanks to the Lord, his love is ev - er - last - ing, his love is ev - er - last - ing.

1. Some went down to the sea in ships,
to trade on the mighty waters.
These have seen the deeds of the Lord,
the wonders he does in the deep.
2. For he spoke and raised up the stormwind,
tossing high the waves of the sea
that surged to heaven and dropped to the depths.
Their souls melted away in distress.
3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need,
and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper,
and the waves of the sea were hushed.
4. They rejoiced because of the calm,
and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his mercy,
his wonders for the children of men.

A GREAT PROPHET
 has risen
 in our midst.
 GOD
 has visited his people.

Luke 7:16

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the
 dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

When Storm Clouds Gather

Dear Parishioners,

Today's gospel reminds me of an often-painful truth: storms and the suffering that accompanies them are often unavoidable. Suffering is part of life. We get sick, we break our arm, we get stung by a bee. All this to say that God allows suffering.

In the Psalm, God commands a storm to rise and rattle the sea and its waves. Yet when his people called to him in their distress, he quieted the storm and brought them to their haven. The same is true for us all. When I suffer, to what or whom do I turn? The world offers many remedies, some good and some ill. Yet neither we nor the world and all its powers are in control of nature, of history. For we are God's story, we are his beloved sons and daughters. When we forget our place thinking the world rests on our shoulders let us remember as God said to Job in our first reading: "Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands?" God created the world and possesses supreme authority over it. Yet it is not the same with us. He has given us the freedom of will to choose (when we face storms, squalls, and any myriad of suffering) to run to him or to other things. We are his children not his slaves. We are new creations; from the waters of our baptism, we died with Christ and share in his life. For us, this is new life, where in the face of sin, suffering, doubt, and fear, we might hold our peace close to Jesus.

Rembrandt's With Jesus in the Storm

Do we not yet have faith? In the gospel, Jesus was sleeping when the storm came. If we are close to him and seek always the good, we too might rest with him. We need only trust in Jesus and all will be well even in the midst of suffering, pain, disease. This world is not our true home. We must seek Jesus, seek heaven, seek goodness and all virtue so that when he calls us to our true home, we do not say "Who is this who the wind and sea obey?" But rather, "Here I am my Lord and God. I love you, please, have mercy on me and take me home."

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Mark 4:35-4 ~ Finding Peace in Christ

In today's gospel, we see Jesus calming the storm. The disciples are afraid, but Jesus shows his power over the wind and sea and then questions their faith. When we face storms in our own lives, we can remember Jesus' power. Just as he calmed the sea for the disciples, he can bring peace to our troubled hearts. We only need to trust him and have faith. When we trust, we can face any storm with courage. We know that he is with us, guiding and protecting us. When have you felt God's presence during a difficult time? How can you trust God more in your daily life?
